

Notes from the Board

Thank you to our Donor Partners

We are thrilled to announce that the UAW-Ford has agreed to sponsor the Pillar of Labor – one of the naming opportunities at The Michigan WWII Legacy Memorial site. The significance of this pillar and the extraordinary achievements that occurred in the factories during World War II is a perfect fit for the UAW-Ford. We are proud to stand with them in honoring the legacy of the home front workers and our World War II veterans. This legacy continues today with their strong focus on veterans and the vital role they play in our country. We were invited to speak at their first annual Veterans Conference last month. It was a great opportunity for us to speak to a national audience of UAW-Ford Veteran

Committee members about our project. Thank you, UAW-Ford!

We also want to send out a big thank you to Gail and Rice who have agreed to help us with our groundbreaking and opening ceremonies. We are so grateful to every company that is supporting this project and we are proud that they will be one of our partners in honoring our Greatest Generation!

Onward and upward!

Debi Hollis, President

Veterans Advisory Council Formed

We realize the importance of having the veterans' perspective on all the elements within our memorial. Recognizing that, the board of The Michigan WWII Legacy Memorial is proud to announce the formation of The Veterans Advisory Council.

The council will serve as a resource to The Michigan WWII Legacy Memorial by providing professional expertise, advice and knowledge of veteran's issues and perspectives as they apply to the organization's goals and objectives. The group will also work to build bridges to local, regional, statewide or national organizations, colleagues or peers, while lending support and leadership in a variety of ways that promotes the mission of the organization.

The members will help us to motivate and inspire current and future generations through the heroic stories of the Greatest Generation. We look forward to working with the Veterans Advisory Council as well as the newly formed Education Coalition.

We want to thank you for your continued support and we look forward to seeing you at one of our upcoming events.

Have a wonderful summer!

Kim Jones, Secretary
Veterans Advisory Council Board Liaison
