

Meet Our Pastoral Council Nominees

The Pastoral Council, consisting of nine to twelve members, represents the parish community acting as liaison to the Pastor. Members stay current with affairs concerning the parish and give insight for planning and implementing policies and parish activities. Listed below are the biographies of the nominees.

On December 15 & 16, we will elect THREE new members.

Dick Dickerson

I have been married to my beautiful bride, Tonya, for 41 years. We have been members of Christ the King for six years and have enjoyed every minute! We have three sons (all snow birds), 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. We also have a daughter in Temple, and a granddaughter who occasionally attends Mass with us. Presently, I hold an office with both the Knights of Columbus council and the 4th degree assembly. I serve as a Eucharistic minister and lector, usually at the 10:30 am Mass. It is an honor to be nominated to serve on the Parish Council, and if elected I will do everything possible to serve and assist Fr. John and the parish to move ahead for the good of our members and the body of our Lord Jesus Christ here at Christ the King.

Pam Fette

I have been a member of Christ the King Parish since we moved to Belton in 2003. I was also a member when my husband, David, served in the Army just after we married. I am a convert to Catholicism. I graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in agricultural economics. I have a minor in music and a master's degree in theological studies from St. Mary's University in San Antonio. I have served the Church as a religious education teacher, Catholic school teacher, and for 14 years as a youth minister and music minister for Sacred Heart Parish in Muenster. I have humbly served Christ the King as a music minister, RCIA teacher, and I just retired from Holy Trinity Catholic High School as a theology and music teacher. I am passionate about empowering, with God's grace, youth and adults to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. At the heart of all parish activities is the Holy Spirit who guides us and give us courage to love each other and live the Good News ever more fully. I want to humbly serve the good people at Christ the King and support the good works of our parish.

Matt Gokingco

Our family has been active at Christ the King since 2015. My wife Corey and I serve in the King's Chorus. I am also an occasional cantor for Sunday Mass. A medical technologist by profession, I work at Baylor Scott & White Research. I have a master's degree in education and taught at a Catholic school for more than 10 years, teaching mathematics and catechism. My wife and I have been married 25 years this December and have two daughters who attended Catholic school. Our family life is closely centered on our Catholic faith and, if elected, I'd be honored and privileged to serve in the best of my ability.

Kim Kroll

I have been a parishioner of Christ the King since June 1996. I have been married to my husband, Jeffery, for 38 years. We have three children: Sarah Adams, age 34 and mother of my three grandchildren (Theresa-5, Elizabeth-3, and Xavier-1 month); Christopher Kroll, 33 and an Army Ranger; and William Kroll, 25 and a recent graduate of Texas State University. I have been the Director of Library Services for the City of Belton for 18 years. I have served Christ the King as a religious education teacher, RCIA instructor, Eucharistic minister, youth minister and I am currently serving on the ACTS core team. I have also been on staff for three ACTS retreats. I feel that this is an exciting time of growth for our parish and it would be an honor to help guide this community toward the future.

Bill Tartaglia

I'm married to a loving and supportive wife, we have four children and nine grandchildren. I have been a part of the Christ the King family for 16 years and could not be happier about being a part of this parish. I'm retired now, which gives me the time to really support our church and Fr. John in any way that is needed. I'm an acolyte in our parish and a spiritual director for the diocese. I am also a very active member of the Knights of Columbus, including being part of our Color Corps/Honor Guard.
