Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 This weekend is the Annual Appeal commitment weekend. We will have time this weekend during the Masses to make our pledge. Many of you may have received a mailing in January that you can respond to as well. You can also support the Appeal online at adw.org.

A gift to the Annual Appeal will touch the lives of thousands of people in a very positive way. As you review the work enabled by your contribution, please reflect on God's gifts to you. Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God, they glorify Him by enabling the work of our archdiocese and give Him thanks for all He has given us.

This last week we added two new employees. The first is Ms. Kristen Bryant, who will serve as an administrative and pastoral assistant in our parish office, helping Mr. Poindexter and I. She is a graduate of Bishop McNamara High School and the University of Maryland Baltimore County. She has worked professionally in web development and marketing, and most recently was the Youth Minister at Ascension Catholic Church in Bowie, where she ran their youth group and also coordinated young adult ministry, as well as helping with religious education. She is a gifted young woman and a hard worker, and I think she will help us in a number of ways, especially with strengthening and developing both our communications networks and our religious education ministries. I've asked Kristen to come by all the Masses this weekend: I hope you'll get a chance to meet her and welcome her to the Holy Family community.

The second new employee is Mr. Antonio Queen, who will work with Mr. David Pugh doing maintenance and custodial work at the school. Mr. Queen is from the neighborhood, and has extensive experience as a facilities manager for DC public schools and as a floor maintenance technician for the Department of Justice. Several of his family members have worked for the Archdiocese as well. He'll be working the afternoon shift, so if you see him around, please say hello.

Lastly, America Magazine recently published an inspiring article by W. Ralph Eubanks entitled, "How Gospel Music Helped Me Find My Catholic Identity". We've put some copies of the article out on the tables at the back of the church. Please take one if you're interested.

In Christ,
 Fr Matt

PARISH LIFE

2019 Annual Appeal.

The Archdiocese of Washington is marking the 50th Anniversary of its Annual Appeal with the theme of "Our Faith. Our Hope. Our Mission." Contributions to the Annual Appeal are 100% designated to ministries that carry out the mission of the Church. For the next two weekends you will be hearing more about this important appeal.

We have entered into conversations with Lifetouch about creating an updated parish directory. It's been over 5 years since the last one. We need to enlist the help of the ministries to accomplish this goal. Please contact the rectory if you or your ministry is ready to commit to aiding this project.

2019 Scholarship applications are currently being accepted. Students enrolling in a Catholic High School or transitioning from High School to an Institution of Higher Learning can pick up an application from the information table in the rear of the church or from our website: www.holyfamilyparish.org. A box will also be on the table to accept completed applications.

Every Saturday at 9:00 am in the Mary Lange Library, the Catholicism Adult Faith Formation series continues to enhance and support the Church's mission to evangelize and teach the Faith. This program explains not only what Catholics believe and why, but also displays in visual detail the richness of the Church's global culture. Facilitator: Father Matt. Continental breakfast will be provided.

Mass Intentions - You can make an offering in honor of a deceased or living loved one, a person's birthday, anniversary, or any another special occasion. These Mass Intentions will be offered by our priests on Sundays in the Church and on weekdays in the Chapel of St Joseph in the Rectory. Mass cards are available to share your intention.
