From the article linked below: The nucleus of St. Jean Vianney's spirituality was the Divine Mercy. Experiencing and sharing Divine Mercy with others — this is what will attract hearts, and transform them, and make them run to Christ. He was convinced that the renewal of the Church would come through mercy, not the fear of hell.

Four years after canonizing him in 1925, Pope Pius the XI declared St. Jean Vianney the patron saint of parish priests. — <https://www.kofc.org/en/columbia/detail/heart-of-a-priest.html>
