Has it been a long time since you received the sacrament of reconciliation? Do you know someone who hasn't gone to confession in a while? Many people let their discomfort and fear prevent them from going to confession and receiving God's healing mercy. Receive some encouragement and remember the great graces of this sacrament by browsing www.TheLightisOnSouthernMN.org. And dare to share the good news that God's mercy is waiting for you! #DaretoShare that The Light is On for You, and forward the website to a friend, relative, or your social media network.

The Pastor's Corner:

In our scripture readings for this 2nd Sunday of Lent, two biblical heroes show us that personal suffering can serve the good of the community. Abraham, in the Genesis passage, is completely frustrated. God promised a great nation, yet he is still without a son. How could this man be confident in God's promise of a great nation when he could not even count a single son? In spite of the questioning, Abraham confirms again his faith in the Lord. Once Abraham opened himself completely by this act of faith, the promise took a new turn. Now Abraham would have not only countless descendants, but also a huge tract of land. This faith in time of crisis became Abraham's heritage to Israel. Jesus' crisis is his pending passion, death, and resurrection. This awareness leads to prayer so intense that his appearance is changed in the Transfiguration. The prayer leads to the reassuring presence of the Father and the Spirit. Moses and Elijah appear with Jesus. Both of them experienced crises and also found their solutions in God's presence. Jesus learned that his passion and death would not be the last word. They were steps leading to the glory of the Resurrection and Ascension (see Luke 24:26). Jesus' crisis is for the benefit of us all.

We all know brokenness in relationships, in health, in finances, in self-confidence. We join Abraham and Jesus in victory over crises by trusting God and serving one another. This joining of our crises to those of the Redeemer means that we are able to stand with him on the mountain, that we are able to transform our dying into rising. This is the three-sided nature of covenant: self, God, and community.

~ Father Colletti

A Prayer for Parents

*O glorious St. Joseph, to you God committed the care
of His only begotten Son
amid the many dangers of this world.
We come to you and ask you to take under your special protection
the children God has given us.
Through holy baptism
they became children of God
and members of His holy Church.
We consecrate them to you today,
that through this consecration
they may become your foster children.
Guard them, guide their steps in life,
form their hearts after the hearts of Jesus and Mary.*

*St. Joseph, who felt the tribulation and worry of a parent when the child Jesus was lost,
protect our dear children for time and eternity.
May you be their father and counsellor.
Let them, like Jesus, grow in age as well as in wisdom
and grace before God and men.
Preserve them from the corruption of his world
and give us the grace one day
to be united with them in Heaven forever. Amen.
St. Joseph ~ March 19th*
