Thank You The family of Florence Fienhage wishes to thank everyone for their expressions of concern and sympathy during the loss of our Mom. A special "Thank You" to the Ecumen Meadows Memory Care unit and staff and Compassionate Care --- You are truly God's angels at work!! To Monsignor Colletti for braving the icy roads and no electricity to come to the Meadows to give Mom her last rites and special blessing. What a beautiful Mass to celebrate Mom's life. To the Wilmont Auxiliary for honoring Mom, she was always so proud to be an Auxiliary member. Thank you to the ladies for bringing the cakes and salads and serving the luncheon. To all the friends and family and the goodies brought to our house along with their time to sit and visit about mom!! Mom's life was her church, family and community. Your kindness's will never be forgotten.

The Pastor's Corner:

On this 3rd Sunday of Easter, we have the twenty-first chapter of St. John which closes out his gospel. Today's passage features Peter, a man who knew failure along the road of discipleship. Three times Jesus tells Peter to feed and tend the sheep. This is a reminder of Israel's kings who were often cast in the role of shepherd (see Ezekiel 34:2,10). Peter had denied Jesus. Jesus not only forgave his sin, but conferred upon him ultimate responsibility for the flock. Peter learned his lesson well; he would imitate Jesus the rest of his life even to the point of giving that life as a martyr. Heroes aren't supposed to fail. In this weekend's scripture readings, the psalmist, Peter, and Jesus teach us how failure and sin is graciously forgiven by our merciful God. We live in a real world where weakness and imperfection are the human condition. Even in the face of our greatest failures, there is a new and brighter tomorrow, because we know that Christ is risen! The Resurrection gives us hope.

Congratulations to our second graders on the occasion of making their First Communion this weekend. Boys and girls, today Jesus comes to you for the first time. Jesus does this for you because He loves you. Jesus loves you very much just like your mothers and fathers. Every time you come to Mass with your family, you may receive Holy Communion with them. Be sure and thank Him for the gift of Himself in Holy Communion. Please pray for your parents and family members that they will continue to be good examples for you. Again, congratulations! May the Lord bless you and your families. ~ Father Colletti

Communion Prayer

*My Lord Jesus Christ,
I firmly believe that I am about to receive,
in Communion, Your Body, Your Blood,
Your Soul, and Your Divinity.
I believe it because You have said it and I am ready to give my life to maintain this Truth. Amen.*
