HEALTH MINISTRY INFORMATION

TAKE A DIGITAL DIET: Do you feel pressured to always be connected? LiveNOW challenges you to step back from your devices and set boundaries for yourself with these simple suggestions. 1. Adopt a time each day to go offline. 2. Declare the dining table as a "device-free" zone. Use the time to connect with each other, instead of being distracted by devices. 3. When eating out or attending meetings, stash your smartphone so you can give your full attention. 4. When driving, put your smartphones or devices out of reach to avoid the temptation. The National Safety Council reports that cell phone use while driving leads to 1.6 million crashes a year. 5. Keep your smartphone and electronic devices out of your bedroom or at least 15 feet away from where you sleep. Light emitted from devices disrupts your sleep and the distance helps you avoid the temptation of checking it all night. © 2018 inHealth Strategies, LLC Avera.org/livenow

Installation into the Ministry of Acolyte: As you know, I will be installed in the Ministry of Acolyte by Bishop John Quinn at the Rural Life Celebration on June 23rd. This is a very special day for me as it the last step in Formation before Diaconate Ordination! An Acolyte is one of the four minor orders that are required to be received before being ordained to the Priesthood. Each order involves an increase in responsibility and role within the Catholic Eucharistic Liturgy, which finally culminates in the Priesthood itself. I am very humbled and honored to be given this opportunity to serve at the Lord's table, and I commit myself more fully to what I firmly believe to be a call to the Priesthood in this Diocese. I hope you all can join Bishop Quinn, Monsignor Colletti and me for this beautiful Celebration of Rural Life and the Installation into the Ministry of Acolyte! ~ David Kruse

Diocese of Winona-Rochester – Child Sexual Abuse Policy Info

The Diocese of Winona-Rochester will provide a prompt, appropriate and compassionate response to reporters of sexual abuse of a child by any diocesan agent (employees, volunteers, vendors, religious or clergy). Anyone wishing to make a report of an allegation of sexual abuse should call the Victim Assistance Coordinator at 507-454-2270, Extension 255. A caller will be asked to provide his or her name and telephone number. Individuals are also encouraged to take their reports directly to civil authorities. The Diocese of Winona-Rochester is committed to protecting children, young people and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes and ministries. The diocesan policy is available on the diocesan web site at www.dow.org under the Safe Environment Program. If you have any questions about the Diocese of Winona-Rochester's implementation of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, please contact Mary Hamann, at 507-858-1244, or mhamann@dow.org.

The Pastor's Corner:

The Pentecost readings celebrate our wealth of resources in the Church, gifts that increase as they are given away. Luke's writings, in the Acts of the Apostles, make clear that the gift of the Spirit is not a personal privilege. The coming of the Paraclete signals the start of a worldwide mission impelling the early Christians beyond their geographic boundaries. The Good News must be announced to all the nations. Pentecost bestowed on the Church the Spirit's gift of unity. Paul, in the second reading, explains this gift to the divided church of Corinth. Using the metaphor of the body, Paul observes that there are many members, but only one body. The whole body suffers when the members war against one another. Rivalry in the Christian community is wrong because we are members of the one Body of Christ, each of us has received the one Spirit.

The Spirit's gifts are many: teaching, instructing, healing, consoling, forgiving, encouraging, and so forth. Pentecost challenges all believers to identify their unique talent so as to share that resource with the deprived. The Spirit will increase our gifts to the extent that we give them away.

~ Father Colletti

Prayer by St. Augustine

*Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy;
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my work, too, may be holy;
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
That I love but what is holy;
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
To defend all that is holy;
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
That I always may be holy. Amen.*
