GOSPEL MEDITATION

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship. "The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

Heavenly Father, you have given us the gifts of life and liberty, and entrust to your people the duty to guard these gifts wherever they are threatened. Help us to protect the freedom of all to follow the Gospel of your Son, Jesus Christ, and to bring his light and truth to the ends of the earth.

Guide all who play a role in enacting legislation to uphold the freedom of conscience of all citizens.

Send us your Spirit to inspire in us the wisdom and courage needed to witness to the truth and to stand up for all whose religious liberty is endangered. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Consider making the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignace 19th Annotation Retreat. Commonly called "The Retreat of Daily Life", this 30-week retreat begins in September and ends in May. It takes place at St. Martha Church in Kennebunk on Wednesdays. There is a choice of attending either a morning or evening session. Each session consists of a one-on-one meeting with a prayer guide (spiritual director), listening to a reflection by one of the guides, and daily prayer with scripture (the Exercises are the background from which St. Francis comes). For more information or to request an application, please contact Maureen Fulford at 207-468-4070 or Ellie Flavin at 207-985-2971.

After a successful debut summer that saw over 400 teens and children participate, "Totus Tuus" is expanding to 10 locations throughout Maine in 2019. "Totus Tuus," taken from the episcopal motto of Pope Saint John Paul II, means "Totally Yours." The mission of the weeklong program is to inspire in young people, from grades 1 through 12, a true longing for holiness. The program is organized by the Diocese of Portland's Office of Vocations. Each session will be led by diocesan seminarians and college students. "Totus Tuus" features daily Mass, prayer such as the rosary and the Angelus, classroom teaching, lunch, music, games, and more. It will take place at St. Thérèse of Lisieux Parish in Sanford, July 7-12.
