GOSPEL MEDITATION

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers whom the Master is sending.

All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice. "Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are. "Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time. "The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone but, for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it overburden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

FR. AGUSTIN SEBASTHIYAN ("FR. AGUSTIN") has been appointed parochial vicar of Holy Spirit Parish, effective July 1. Please join us in welcoming him at receptions after the 4 PM, 8 AM, & 10 AM Masses at St. Martha in Kennebunk on July 6 and 7 (the following weekend, receptions will be in Wells after the 4 PM, 9 AM, & 11 AM masses).

On July 1, the Diocese of Portland will launch a new third-party reporting system that will enable all diocesan employees, volunteers, and parishioners to make reports, anonymously or not, whenever they have evidence of activity which violates the standards of ethical conduct described in the diocese's Code of Ethics (www.portlanddiocese.org/human-resources/code-of-ethics).

Examples of this activity include fraud, misconduct, safety violations, harassment, or substance abuse occurring at a Catholic parish, Catholic school, or at the diocesan level. Reports can be made by visiting www.redflagreporting.com and clicking on "File a Report," or by calling 1-877-647-3335, a 24/7 hotline that is available in English and Spanish. Either process will require the Diocese of Portland's client code which is: RCDPortland.

Once a report is made, Red Flag ensures accountability at the diocesan level by overseeing the handling of each complaint. Whistleblower protection is also guaranteed to anyone making a report.

The Red Flag Reporting system is not intended for anyone with information about the sexual abuse of a minor. In those cases, please contact civil authorities as well as Michael Magalski, Director of the Office of Professional Responsibility for the Diocese of Portland, at (207) 321-7836 or michael.magalski@portlanddiocese.org.

It takes place at St. Martha Church in Kennebunk on Wednesdays. There is a choice of attending either a morning or evening session. Each session consists of a one-on-one meeting with a prayer guide (spiritual director), listening to a reflection by one of the guides, and daily prayer with scripture (the Exercises are the background from which St. Francis comes). For more information or to request an application, please contact Maureen Fulford at 207-468-4070 or Ellie Flavin at 207-985-2971.
