

Together WE Build St. Veronica Church

For each member of your household, list the person's name in the column at the top, and then check any ministry or organization to which the member wishes to offer stewardship time or talent. Parishioners of all ages are encouraged to become actively involved in stewardship through service to a ministry or organization. For members younger than 18 years of age, please note age with the members name. Brief descriptions of ministries and organizations are available in the parish guidebook or on the church website www.stveronica.org You may include comments or additional skills and talents. To receive additional information on a ministry write the word info in the box. Please return to the Parish Office. Thank You!
