Gospel Meditation

Doesn't it seem as if Jesus is giving his fellow dinner guests etiquette lessons here? He's telling them whom to invite and whom not to invite to their parties. He's advising them on how to choose a seat at the table. He's even showing them how to avoid the embarrassment of having the host move them to a lesser place!

But Jesus is doing something more important than teaching good manners. He is challenging his listeners – and us – to move beyond the safe circles we tend to build for ourselves. We are all familiar with the gatherings Jesus describes in this passage: parties filled with friends, brother, relatives, wealthy neighbors. They are comfortable. And they create a closed loop. There is no room for people who are different from us, especially the poor or anyone who might make us feel uncomfortable. The problem comes when this is the only kind of interaction we have.

Jesus isn't expecting you to throw open your doors and host a meal for any and all takers. But he is asking you to stretch out your hand a little more to the "poor" people around you. You don't even have to share a meal. All Jesus is asking for is your willingness to give without expecting anything in return. It's what he does for you!
