The FESF is a day of faith, family and fun - all for FREE. The FESF concludes with an inspiring outdoor Mass with Bishop Nelson Perez. For more information, go online to our website: www.theFESF.us.

POSTURE DURING THE LITURGY Beginning Divine Mercy Sunday, every parish in the Diocese will be changing the Communion Rite posture to reflect the original policy of the Diocese, first established in 2003. We will remain standing after the Lamb of God, throughout the distribution and reception of Holy Communion and the singing of the Communion Hymn, until the end of the distribution of Holy Communion. Once the last person has received the Eucharist and the Communion Hymn ends, we may kneel or sit for private prayer.
— Bishop Nelson J. Pérez

PASTOR'S NOTE

He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen! He is risen!

We see this all over Easter cards and on signs this time of year along with "Alleluia!" In the Eastern churches, one greets the other with this greeting and the reply is "Indeed He is truly risen!" Why is it so important to say? Why is it so attractive to ponder? Why replicate it everywhere? Because it is the situation within which everything else takes place. Because death and sin did not win and are not winning. Because life won and has won ever since. Because anyone focused on a narrative of failure or disappointment is focused on the wrong thing. Because the gates of Hell shall not prevail against Jesus' community, the Church. There are infinitely more examples, but basically, no matter what it is we think is going poorly, no matter what we see reported going sinfully, no matter what negative we may be tempted to let reign, for the repentant heart, for the ones who seeks God, for those who die and rise with Jesus Christ, victory is available because HE IS TRULY RISEN. See it everywhere, find it in everyone, and continue it in all that you do. HAPPY EASTER!

— Father Chris
