 Knowledge Meet”*

Happenings

OLV School had another wonderful and spirited Catholic Schools Week recently. CSW is by far one of the busiest weeks at OLV – second only to graduation week. This year’s theme, “Catholic Schools: Learn, Serve, Lead, Succeed,” embodies all that the school represents and holds dear. Following the CSW Sunday Mass, hundreds of visitors, made up of current and prospective school families, as well as alumni, toured your alma mater and saw all the school’s traditions of faith on display right alongside the updated facilities and technology throughout the school.

The week’s events included a Pajama Day visit from OLV School Class of 2005 graduate, author Christine Sweeney Letcher, who has written six books, including five-book “Read & Eat Series” designed to introduce children to nutrition and healthy eating. This special week also focused on: prayers for vocations and peace for our nation, Valentines for Veterans, food pantry donations, exhibitions of sportsmanship and character, and a special day to honor the amazing teachers of OLV School, which was highlighted at the week’s closing Mass. Thank you to the many, many people who helped make it a very special week!
