10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 10, 2018

Dear parishioners,

As you read this, our team will be in Booneville working with Sisters Marge and Angie to do some work with and for the people of this Appalachian area. The actual work, however, is much larger than the apparent work.

As I have been preparing for our mission trip, I have also been reflecting on our effort, trying to deepen my motivation and hopefully our witness.

Family Promise has taught me there are two kinds of poverty—situational poverty (a stroke of unexpected luck: the death or departure of the family's wage earner, loss of a job, major medical setbacks) and generational poverty (a long family history of lack of resources). In Family Promise we deal with both kinds of poverty. In Booneville we meet mostly generational poverty. These folks are without skills, without tools, without experience, without resources. We have an abundance of all of those, and obviously, these are what we bring. At a deeper level the folks of that area lack hope, and this has become a way of life for them. We bring our tools and our skill and our optimism. This gives them a leg up in life. It lends them a helping hand. In a very limited frame of time we show them some care and companionship, and this gives them a ray of hope. In the same way at Christmastime our gifts of new socks and underwear give them a ray of hope. They have something new.

Thank you to the team who give their time, talent, and good will. Thank you to all of you who support us with your gifts of food, money, prayers, and interest. It takes all of us to make a difference. Our gifts are never given to us for ourselves alone.

Sister Carol
