Vermont Catholic wants to hear from young disciples: If you are between the ages of 13 and 30, you are invited to submit a 300-500-word essay about how the Church can attract, engage and retain young people. Several essays will be selected for publication in the fall issue of Vermont Catholic Magazine and writers will have the opportunity to discuss their ideas with Bishop Coyne. Please send entries to: editor@vermontcatholic.org with the subject line "Young Disciples Essay" by August 1.

All families are invited to join Bishop Coyne and Catholics from throughout the state at the third annual diocesan Family Day Mass at St. Anne's Shrine in Isle LaMotte. Mass will take place Sunday, July 7, at 12:15 p.m. followed by a picnic lunch and family fun on the shrine grounds or on the shore of Lake Champlain. Bring your own picnic lunch or enjoy a barbeque provided on site. There is no cost for the barbeque this year, which will include hamburgers and hot dogs with all the fixings, potato salad, chips, chocolate chip cookies, watermelon, ice pops and beverages. A bounce house for children is included in the fun this year. Those attending the Family Day are welcome to bring lawn games like corn hole, volleyball or badminton as well as beach toys. The family event will take place rain or shine. For more information and to RSVP by July 1, contact Terri McCormack by email at tmccormack@vermontcatholic.org or 802-658-6110 ext. 1451

Putting Christ on Display: Corpus Christi procession give witness to Jesus' Real presence

The Corpus Christi procession is a profound and beautiful public witness to our faith in the real presence. We don't parade around with insignificant objects held aloft. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the church's life (cf. Lumen Gentium, No.11). These processions show the world just how seriously individual Catholics and church as a whole take this.

The full name of the feast is Corpus et sanguis, and it was established in 1246 by Bishop Robert Thorete of Liege, Belgium. Pope urban IV extended the feast to the Universal Church in 1264. St. Thomas Aquinas composed the office of the feast, and this was approved by Pope Martin V, with the customary procession accompanying the feast approved by Pope Eugene IV.

Each year Pope leads a Corpus Christi procession through the streets of Rome from the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran to the Basilica of St. Mary Major, a remarkable sight when you consider the history of the Church in those very streets. It was through the streets of Rome that Christians were taken on their way to be slaughtered for sport and the entertainment of Roman citizens: it was in these streets that St. Tarcisus was martyred for refusing to give the Eucharist to "Raging dogs" as pope St. Damasus wrote of him. And now Catholics process through those same streets in triumph, holding aloft the King of Kings.
