

Youth Code of Behavior for Campout

In order to ensure that everyone has a great experience at the Camp Out, we ask each participant to read this Code of Behavior carefully.

I agree to the following:

- I will participate in all Campout activities with a positive attitude and help others to have the best possible time and share the spirit of Christian friendship with all who are present.
- I agree to show proper respect at all times to all youth and adult participants and will refrain from the use of profanity.
- Bringing/selling/buying/ using alcoholic beverages, tobacco products or illegal drugs will result in being sent home immediately.
- Weapons are not allowed, including but not limited to knives and firearms.
- Visiting in tents by members of the opposite sex is not permitted at any time.
- I will not leave the camp grounds without permission of my group leader. I will not invite outside visitors to the camp.
- No one is allowed to leave or arrive at the camp grounds after 11:00 p.m.
- I will not destroy or remove any camp or parish youth group property. I will not cut any shrubs or trees. I understand that I am responsible for damage I cause to campgrounds and buildings.
- I will be in the parish campsite by 12:00 a.m. and remain there quietly for the rest of the evening.
- I will stay off the beach and seawall from sunset to sunrise.
- Fires are not permitted.

I will leave the following items at home:

- Air horns
- Fireworks, matches, lighters
- MP3 players/iPods, tablets, computers or any other personal electronic equipment
- Shaving cream or any other substance for the purpose of using on individual or their property.

I will follow the dress code:

- No tank tops – shirts with sleeves only
- No bare midriffs
- Shirts should not have inappropriate slogans/advertisements (alcohol advertisements, etc)
- No short shorts. (Ladies - NO short shorts) No undergarments should be visible.
- Bathing suits are not allowed at any time.

I agree that if I do not abide by the above guidelines my parents will be notified and are expected to pick me up immediately. If I am dismissed, I agree that the money paid for the event is forfeited.

With God's help, I agree to contribute and cooperate to the overall success of this year's Diocesan Youth Campout.
