STEWARDSHIP REPORT

EFFECTIVE SUPPORT OF YOUR CHURCH IS WISE STEWARDSHIP

"If it is to encourage others, we should do so. Whoever shares with others should do it generously; whoever has authority should work hard; whoever shows kindness to others should do it cheerfully." (Romans 12:8)

We are always learning how to do better what we do in your service, O God. As we bring our offerings, teach us how to give with willing and generous hearts and discover the joy of stewardship. Amen.

SOWING AND GROWING SEEDS OF BETTER DISCIPLESHIP
AND GREATER HOLINESS

In today's gospel, Jesus sends his disciples out on mission with authority over unclean spirits. They are to preach the gospel, heal the sick and drive out demons

They are to minister to those who hunger and thirst for righteousness as they proclaim the kingdom of God in the world. Our world is no different—people are hungry and thirsty—physically and spiritually. Like the disciples Jesus sent out “two by two”, we are also equipped to meet the challenges this world imposes. Are you hungry and thirsty for what is right? Jesus is waiting for us to respond

Again, we turn to Pope Francis and his insights found in his letter entitled, Rejoice and Be Glad (Gaudete Et Exsultate). This week we focus on the Beatitude, “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Hunger and thirst are intense experiences, since they involve basic needs and our instinct for survival. There are those who desire justice and yearn for righteousness with similar intensity. Jesus says that they will be satisfied, for sooner or later justice will come. We can cooperate to make that possible, even if we may not always see the fruit of our efforts.

Jesus offers a justice other than that of the world, so often marred by petty interests and manipulated in various ways. Experience shows how easy it is to become mired in corruption, ensnared in the daily politics of quid pro quo, where everything becomes business. How many people suffer injustice, standing by powerless while others divvy up the good things of this life. Some give up fighting for real justice and opt to follow in the train of winners. This has nothing to do with the hunger and thirst for justice that Jesus praises.

True justice comes about in people's lives when they themselves are just in their decisions; it is expressed in their pursuit of justice for the poor and the weak. While it is true that the word “justice” can be a synonym for faithfulness to God's will in every aspect of our life, if we give the word to general a meaning, we forget that it is shown especially in justice toward those who are most vulnerable: “seek justice, correct oppression; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow” (Isaiah 1:17).

Hungering and thirsting for righteousness: that is holiness.

Pope Francis
