CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER Our Lenten journey climaxes in this celebration of Holy Week. Throughout these days we are called to experience with Christ a journey of unselfish love; to die to all that is sinful in us and to rise to new and renewed life. Will justice and charity be renewed in us through this journey? Will we make room for those in need as we let selfishness die in us?

Healing Mass, St. Mary in Waco
The Ladies of Charity of Waco will host the 35th annual Easter Healing Mass and Anointing of the Sick April 8 at 11 a.m. at St. Mary Parish in Waco. Refreshments will be served following the service in St.

Mary's Parish Hall. For more information, call (254) 876-2277.

Divine Mercy Indulgence

What is an Indulgence?

What an Indulgence does is to take an occasion of such expiation (a certain prayer, penance, charity or other designated work) and add to its intrinsic merit before God an additional value based on the treasury of merits of Jesus Christ, and those perfectly united to Him in heaven (the saints). This can either partially, or under certain conditions, totally remit the temporal punishment due to sin. This depends, naturally, on our openness to God's grace. A mechanical performance of an indulgenced work would not have effect. Performing an indulgenced work should have the consequence of fixing our will away from our sins and entirely on God. This is why among the most important of the conditions for receiving a plenary indulgence, and the hardest to satisfy, is the complete detachment from or detestation of our sins.

Plenary Indulgence Requirements

I. The usual conditions for every plenary indulgence:

- sacramental confession (within about 20 days before or after)
- Eucharistic communion (preferably on the day, or the days before or after)
- prayer for the intentions of Holy Father

II. The specific conditions for this Indulgence:

On Divine Mercy Sunday

- in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, one should take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy
- or, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!").

Partial Indulgence Requirements

A partial indulgence, granted to the faithful who, at least with a contrite heart, pray to the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimately approved invocation. (e.g. "Jesus I trust in You", "My Jesus mercy", or any other approved invocation.)

Note on Partial Indulgences

In the past partial indulgences were "counted" in days (e.g. 300 days) or years (e.g. 5 years). Catholics often mistakenly thought that this meant "time off of Purgatory." Since there is no time in Purgatory, as we understand it, it meant instead the remission of temporal punishment analogous to a certain amount of penitence as practiced in the early Church. This was a very generous standard, since the penitence required for sacramental absolution in the early centuries was arduous, indeed. However, with Pope Paul VI's 1968 revision of the Enchiridion Indulgentiarum (Collection or Handbook of Indulgences), this confusing way of counting partial indulgences was suppressed, and the evaluation of a partial indulgence left to God. Please note the schedule for Triduum. The principle liturgies of the the three days form one liturgical whole (which is why Veneration occurs only once, though as Stations are devotional and not liturgical they are repeatable) and all the Faithful are invited and encouraged to participate in all three of these great celebrations of the holiest days of the Church. The Vigil, as a celebration of the dawning Light Who triumphs over the darkness of death and sin, is to take place "in the Holy Night" and, as we were reminded by the Vicar General, is to not begin until after sunset.
