Paul encouraged the Philippians to pray whenever they became anxious, so prayer is said to be a powerful enabler to live the Christian life. With petitions to God in thanksgiving and in trust in God's ability to answer our prayers, a believer can have peace and assurance. We meet at 9 a.m. in the Parish Center Conference Room.

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus entrusted the keys of the Kingdom to Peter, who represents the whole church – all of us. What are those keys? In Matthew's Gospel they are the Beatitudes. This means that all of us, and each of us, are called to be poor in spirit, and meek, we are to hunger and thirst for righteousness; we are to show mercy and be peacemakers, we will mourn and we will experience persecution. We are called to love as God loves – without counting the cost and without exception. How will you witness to God's love this week? To whom are you called to show love?
