The Gospel readings from now until the end of our Easter time celebration are drawn from Jesus’ Last Supper discourse in John’s Gospel, Jesus is trying to summarize and reinforce His message so that His disciples will be prepared to carry on. Today we hear Him say that He is the way to the Father, and that He will be preparing a dwelling place for each of us in His Father’s house. Let us be attentive to God’s word today, listening for these and other messages of reassurance for those who believe.

Stewardship Reflection:
May 17 / 18, 2014

In the first letter of Peter, we are taught that God made us and chose us to reveal to the world who he is. Christian stewards understand that they do not live for themselves. They live to be stewards of Christ’s presence within them, and to make his presence known to others. They do it at Mass. They do it in faith-sharing groups. They do it at work. And they do it daily in a thousand different ways; and where they express their love for God and others in a manner that suits their situation and personality. Name for yourself some of the ways this week you will make Christ’s presence known to others

Who Is This Jesus?

By: Kristina Ml. DeNeve
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator

On retreat once, my director instructed me to spend time with Jesus. Simply observe him through my Gospel readings. What did he say? What did he do? What was he all about? So, I did this, spending prayer hours reading Mark's Gospel and asking myself what each story meant about the person of Jesus.

I still vividly remember my second day on this retreat. Jesus had been baptized and tempted in the desert. It was still early in his ministry—crucifixion was far away. All of a sudden, I was hit with this really obvious, but very important insight. I thought, : "Wow. This person, this Jesus.... Is God. I am seeing God heal and teach."

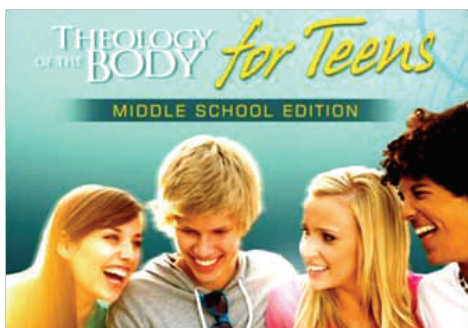

Now, as a cradle Catholic, I've known my whole life that Jesus is God, fully human and fully divine. But, this retreat, like our Gospel today, like our Easter season, asked me, asks us, to look at Jesus with fresh eyes.

It turns out it is one thing to know that Jesus is in the Father and the Father is in Jesus. Then again, it is another thing to know this.
