Pentecost
June 7 & 8, 2014

Acts 2:1-11 As on Sinai, the Lord Descends in fire and Wind.

Psalms 104 "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the Face of the earth."

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 The Spirit calls the baptized to ministry For the common good.

John 20:19-23 On the first day of the Week the risen Christ Imparts the Holy Spirit.

Throughout history, the Spirit of God has moved people of faith to heed God's call. Our readings today recall and celebrate all that the Holy Spirit has done for us and for the church. Let us listen to these sacred texts and allow them to renew our own hearts and move us to be agents of the Spirit's movements in the world around us today. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in us the fire of your love!

God is Good!

Does Pentecost Really Matter?

By: Kristina Ml. DeNeve
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator
Diocese of Honolulu

Pentecost was not just a one-time event in ancient history. It means the Holy Spirit resides in you. God is present and active within each of us.

As we mature as human beings, as followers of Jesus Christ, we find ourselves:

- More easily figuring out the best thing to do in current life situation;
- Able to face difficulties even taking big steps we know we must risk;
- Increasingly attracted to goodness and love over apathy or selfishness;
- Discovering what really matters and gives true meaning to our life;
- Feeling alive, desiring to learn and grow into the persons we were created to be;
- Finding more and more in our lives that we respect and are grateful about;
- Growing in wonder and awe.

These are the gifts of the Holy Spirit. (Can you connect these definitions with their misunderstood titles: Wisdom; Understanding; Knowledge, Counsel; Piety; Fortitude; and finally, Fear of the Lord?)

Above all, as we mature in discipleship, the Holy Spirit more and more gives us peace. Yes, I'd say that Pentecost really matters!

12 Weeks – End of Month 3: “I Can Suck My Thumb!”

Thank you for praying for me. I'm three months old now. I'm about 3 inches long and I weigh one ounce. That's not much, but I'm fully formed and can even suck my thumb!

GUESS WHAT?

We are at the end of the first trimester! Your spiritually adopted baby is becoming very active in the womb now. Here are some things he can do:

- ❖ Squint
- ❖ Swallow
- ❖ Move his tongue
- ❖ Make a tight fist if you touch his palm

Our Spiritual Adoption program is still ongoing. The “Watch Me Grow” board was temporarily taken down for repairs. Thank you for your continued prayers for the unborn.

Come join us at OLG School

Our Lady of Good Counsel School services Preschool 3 - Grade 8. Our students receive a program that focuses on Catholic knowledge, tradition and practice. We guide and encourage our students to strengthen their relationship with God while giving them a firm foundation in the academic areas. Our teachers integrate 21st century skills with common core and national standards.

We prefer our student applicants or preschool and kindergarten to be born by August 1st, however, we will assess each student before deciding if they are ready for our program or not.

Please call for an application at 455-4533 ext. 0, or download an application at www.olgchawaii.org. You can also see what our school is about on our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/olgchawaii.
