The words of the psalmist echo the theme of all of today’s readings. “Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.” As good stewards, firmly grounded in that hope, may we bear fruit in due season — assisting the poor, feeding the hungry, and consoling the sorrowful whenever we have the chance.

Bogus Emails

There has been a scam going around where people are receiving emails supposedly from their priests asking for assistance. It usually has to do with iTunes cards and asking for the recipient to buy iTunes cards and email the numbers. It has been happening in the diocese for a couple of months and I understand from some of you that it is now occurring in the consortium. Please know that Frs. Dooley, Herge, and I would never approach you in this way. Just delete the emails.

Thanks, Fr. Hahn

Mount Carmel Hospital Helicopter Crash

On Tuesday January 29th, a medical helicopter from Mount Carmel Hospital in Grove City was en route to Pomeroy, Ohio to pick up a patient in distress. During the flight, the helicopter crashed near Zaleski, just east of Route 278, south of King Hollow Trail in Brown Township. Sadly, all three occupants of the helicopter were killed. The names of the victims are: pilot Jennifer L. Topper, 34, of Sunbury; and flight nurses Bradley J. Haynes, 48, of London and Rachel L. Cunningham, 33, of the Far West Side of Columbus.

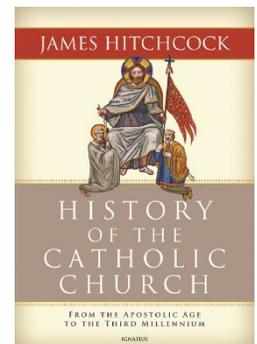

Our 11:00am Sunday Mass for March 3rd will be offered for the repose of their souls. We pray for their families and friends at this time. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

PICK OF THE WEEK, February 17, 2019

The history of the Catholic Church is long, complicated, and fascinating, and in this book it is expertly and ably told by historian James Hitchcock. As in the parable of Christ about the weeds that were sown in a field of wheat, evil and good have grown together in the Church from the start, as Hitchcock honestly records. He brings before us the many characters—some noble, some notorious—who have left an indelible mark on the Church, while never losing sight of the saints, who have given living testimony to the salvific power of Christ in every age. February 21: St. Peter Damian, Bishop, Cardinal and Doctor of the Church

St. Peter Damian was one of the great reformers of the Church of the Middle Age. He began as a Benedictine hermit of Fontavellana and soon became their abbot (1043). Pope Stephen IX made him Cardinal Bishop of Ostia in 1057 and from this post he became a pillar of truth and virtue in attacking the abuses, particularly in the clergy, that was wreaking havoc in the Church of the 11th century. St. Peter Damian entered at a time when the Church had been subject to almost two centuries of political and social chaos, doctrinal ignorance and scandalous personal behaviour on the part of the clergy. This saint, being famous for his life of austerity and penance, would act as the principal theorist of the counter-revolutionaries against the Church's corrupt establishment. His writings were crucial in helping the popes of the time bring about the reforms so desperately needed. To read more about this saint who loved and fought for Holy Mother Church go to: <http://www.ewtn.com/library/MARY/PETEDAMI.HTM>.

This simple bisque (soup) recipe is traditionally Benedictine, for its simplicity and for the addition of wine which these Old World monks were known for making.

RECIPE: Cream of Chicken Bisque (from catholicculture.org) Serves 4

4Tbsp butter	4tbsp flour
1 1/4 cups chicken broth	1/2 tsp salt
1 onion, halved	1 stalk celery, halved
3 cups milk or half and half	3/4 cup minced cooked chicken (rotisserie works)
dash garlic powder	1 egg yolk
1/3 cup dry sherry	whipping cream

Mix butter and flour over low heat to a bubbling paste. Add broth, salt, onion and celery. Stir until creamy; cover; cool over low heat for 15 min, stirring occasionally. Strain out onion and celery; keeping liquid; add milk, minced chicken and garlic powder. Cook until creamy. In separate bowl, thin egg yolk with a little hot soup; stir into soup pot and add dry sherry. Simmer only! Garnish with a splash of whipping cream, if desired. Enjoy with some crusty bread.

Payer to St. Peter Damian

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that we may so follow the teaching and example of the Bishop Saint Peter Damian, that, putting nothing before Christ and always ardent in the service of Your Church, we may be led to the joys of eternal light. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, on God, for ever and ever. Amen. (from the Roman Missal)
