Pastor's Paragraphs

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate St. Wenceslaus, who is an important saint for the Czech community. "Good King Wenceslaus" died as a martyr in the year 929 A.D. He did his best to communicate Christian values in a world of political unrest and turmoil. We welcome Bishop Roger Gries, members of the Czech community and other visitors as well, as we honor St. Wenceslaus at our 4 pm mass. Dedicated members of the Czech community founded our parish in 1902. We give thanks for their prayers, sacrifices and dedicated labor, which resulted in laying the foundation for the parish of St. John Nepomucene. Hopefully, we can follow in their footsteps.

We are happy and grateful to have a Regional Parish School of Religion at St. John Nepomucene for children in grades 1-8. We express our thanks to Miss Judy Lasecki, our PSR Principal and to our teachers: Miss Sue McDonough, Mr. Vince Radzilowski, Mrs. Sharon Hensel, Miss Lois Pupkiewicz and Mrs. Patricia Bednarz. All children enrolled in public school should be registered to receive religious education in our Parish School of Religion. All children are welcome to attend. They do not have to be members of our parish. Parents and Caregivers are encouraged to register their children by calling Miss Judy Lasecki at 216-641-8444, ext. 29. We begin the Parish School of Religion Program this Monday, September 29th with a Mass at 6:30 pm in our church. Everyone is invited to attend.

Saturday, October 4th is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. In keeping with the tradition of St. Francis' love for all of God's creatures, we will have the Blessing of Animals and other pets at the rectory garage at 11 am on Saturday, October 4th. Everyone is encouraged to bring his or her pets and animals to the rectory garage for this special blessing.

Prayers and Best Wishes,
Father Jasany

STEWARDSHIP – Saint Augustine, a doctor of the church, once wrote that the first, second and third most important attitude in Christianity is humility. In today's second reading, Saint Paul is concerned with how we conduct ourselves in our community of faith. He urges us to let our conduct be worthy of the Gospel we say that we believe; and that it all begins with humility. He asks us to consider others better than ourselves, and to serve them by looking out for their best interest, not ours. Consider how Saint Paul's appeal to imitating Christ's humility can enhance your relationships.

Did you know that prayer has ebb and a flow? There are times when our prayers are fruitful, fulfilling and awesome. But there are also times when our prayers are dry, dusty and seem non-existent. Sometimes we walk on water, and sometimes we sink like a stone! Some of the greatest saints and holy people experienced this regularly. I know in my own prayer life I have dry periods and fruitful periods! We all have a tendency to believe that our prayers should always be interesting and warm; that they always give us spiritual insight; that we have the sense that we are praying and someone is speaking with us. This is true of our early spirituality, but as we grow closer to the Lord, it is not necessarily so. But if we continue to pray faithfully, day in and day out, year after year, an intimacy with the Lord will be growing within us. I love what Soren Kierkegaard said: "Praying does not mean listening to yourself speak; praying means calming down and being still and waiting until you hear from God." There are many ways to pray. We can use learned prayers like the rosary to lead us to Jesus. The repetition of the prayers will take us to a deeper place if we truly concentrate on the prayer, and not what is happening around us. Then there is prayer using our own words. David pleaded with God, praised God, thanked God and asked God for help. My favorite Psalm is Psalm 23, "The Lord is my Shepherd." We go to the Lord with everything that is on our hearts. Then there is contemplation and meditation. In using this form of prayer, I will put some soft music in my CD player, light a candle and darken the room. I will repeat a phrase over and over until I am totally at peace and can spend some time listening to the still, small voice inside of me. Then I can have a conversation with the Lord. Then there are some deeper forms of prayer such as St. Teresa of Avila's "Interior Castle." She saw mental prayer as being a castle with many, many rooms. Inspired by her vision of the soul as a crystal globe in the shape of a castle containing seven mansions, she interpreted this as the journey of faith through seven stages, ending with union with God. Each mansion has many rooms, and in each room the person praying deals with imperfections in their lives, or situations, which cause pain and need to be healed. It is a lifelong process, but it is deep way of healing and getting to know the Lord. The Liturgy is a communal prayer that we need to support each other and to receive Jesus in our body in a very physical way. There are many ways to pray, but they all lead to the same place: Jesus Christ, Our Lord! Our October Friday Night at the Movies will be on October 17th at 6:30 pm. The Movie will be "Heaven is For Real." Hope to see you there!

See you soon! Karen

Blanket Sunday is coming soon! The weekend of October 11th-12th marks the 28th Annual Blanket Sunday Collection to aid the needy. The collection is sponsored by the Diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society. This year, due to lack of storage space, they are sponsoring a cash only collection. They will gratefully accept your cash donation and do the shopping for you, making your money go even farther with bulk purchases of blankets and other items needed by low income families. So give someone a blanket for the winter and give yourself a warm feeling!
