Dear Parishioners,

This weekend begins the Holy Season of Advent. It is a Season of Joyful Expectation! We pray that Christ, Our Savior will be born again in us.

On Sunday, November 30th at 12 pm there is an Advent Reflection in our parish hall entitled "Coming Home for Christmas: Who and Where is My Family?" All are invited to attend.

We will again have the St. John Nepomucene "Giving Tree" to provide gifts for needy children in our parish and at Beech Brook, which serves North East Ohio's most vulnerable children. Take one or more tags from the "Giving Tree" and purchase a gift for a needy child or children.

On Monday, December 1st, we will celebrate Communal Penance in our church. Everyone is invited to go to confession that evening. All of us are sinners in need of a Savior. The Savior wishes to be born again in the manglers of our hearts. We will have additional confessors that evening to assist with our celebration. Everyone is invited to attend! Please invite people whom you know to come to our Communal Penance Service. Having a relationship with Jesus Christ is the Reason for the Season.

Perhaps you are aware of someone who has "fallen away" from the active practice of the Catholic Faith. It could be someone in your own family or maybe a friend. Invite that person to come with you.

Please pick up a Blue Advent Book at the entrances of our church. The book contains prayers and reflections for every day during Advent.

This Year the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Holyday of Obligation. We will have Masses at 8:30 am and 7 pm. Kathryn DeCapite, President of the World Apostolate of Fatima, Cleveland Division will give a talk on the Fatima Message immediately after the 7 pm Mass in our church. Please plan to attend.

This could be our best Christmas ever if we open our hearts to Christ by participating in the various events that are offered to us.

Wishing you a Happy and Blessed Advent.

Prayers & Best Wishes!
Father Jasany

Avila News – Due to harsh winter weather in the coming months, the Avilas agreed to discontinue the monthly Holy Hour for Vocations in Church on the First Fridays in December, January, February and possibly March. We agree to pray as usual but in the warmth of our own homes. During these months, the Avila Meditations will be found in Church on the radiator nearest Father’s sacristy door. They are in a folder marked Avila Meditations. Please take a copy home for your private holy hour.

Please remember St. Nicholas on December 6th and have fruit, nuts and/or candy in his honor. Be safe. Be warm. Pray for vocations.

Many Thanks, Rita Traska

Second Sunday of Advent

Jesus, Renewer of Our Hope – We hope that Jesus’ presence will change us and our lives. So let us pray this week not to fear these changes.

Altar & Rosary Society
Christmas Party and

Meeting beginning at 12:30 pm.

Reservations are needed for this event. Members, please call Dolores Minko at 216-341-9329 if you have questions.

This weekend is the Annual Appeal for the Retirement Fund for Religious.

Senior Catholic sisters, brothers and priests spent years working in Catholic schools, hospitals and social service agencies, often for very little, if any pay. Their sacrifices now leave their religious communities without adequate savings for retirement and elder care. Your gift to this fund helps provide for their care. Please give to those who have given a lifetime. Envelopes for this collection are in your monthly envelope packet.

Karen's Korner

Did you know that the book of Isaiah contains many of the prophecies about the birth of the Messiah? Isaiah 11:1-9 talks about the root that shall come from the stump of Jesse, this is where the Jewish people realized that the Messiah would be from the line of King David. Isaiah was a prophet during the time of exile for the Israelites. Later in Isaiah 40:3-5, the prophet says, "A voice cries out: 'In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.'"

This theme will be repeated during this Advent several times. This is a time of joyful waiting for our Lord, not a time of penance. This is a time to reflect on the crooked paths in our lives and find ways to make them straight. Micah 5: 2-3 says, "But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel."

Advent is a time to return to the Lord with gladness, to find ways to love the baby King more deeply. The prophets were speaking to a divided kingdom about how they had turned away from Yahweh and how they would be destroyed if they did not repent. But they also give us such great hope for the future!

Jeremiah is one of my favorite prophets and my favorite story is the potter and the clay in Jeremiah 18:1-6. The Lord asks Jeremiah, "Can I not do with you, O House of Israel, just as the potter has done?" A potter forms and re-forms the clay until it is to his liking. What things in our lives need to be re-formed this Christmas?

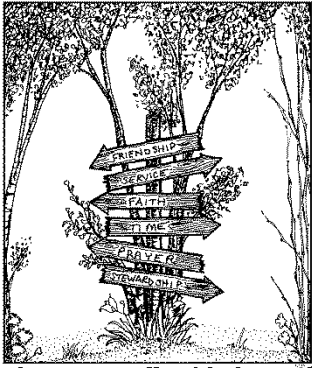

Fr. Robert Barron has a series of daily Advent reflections that can be sent right to your email! Go to www.wordonfire.org and sign up! It is FREE! I believe he is one of our modern day prophets calling us to deeper faith and love of the Lord. Want to hear some of his sermons or thoughts? Go to www.YouTube.com and search, you will be amazed at what he has to say! Advent is a wonderful period of reflection on how this baby King effects our lives on a daily basis! Happy Advent!

Please join me on Friday, December 12, 2014 for the Hallmark Hall of Fame movie, "The Gift of Love: A Christmas Story"

See you soon! Karen

Standing at a Crossroad?

Choose to Walk with the Lord

Stewardship

The season of Advent is upon us, and in today's Gospel Jesus delivers a simple message through the pen of Saint Mark:

"Be watchful! Be alert!" Christian stewards understand what Jesus meant when he said, "It's like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with his assigned task." Good stewards realize that to each one a task is assigned by God. They have been set in a particular place and station in life, and have been gifted with unique relationships. How do we respond to the tasks or cultivate our relationships in a way that keeps us alert for the return of Christ?
