Right to Life March Reflection
by Kelly Lister

I journeyed to Washington to attend the annual National Right to Life March.
I decided for financial reasons to join the bus sponsored by the Knights of Columbus in Brunswick. The cost was $45.00 plus two meals in route. Although the trip involved two-8 hour bus rides in 24 hours, the journey was well worth any travel inconvenience. We used Baron's Bus, a Catholic owned corporation, very comfortable for a bus.
Highlights of the trip included attending the closing Mass for the National Vigil for Life. The ceremony was at the incredibly beautiful Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Then of course was marching with perhaps 100,000 other pilgrims, many under 21 years old! We were blessed by a surprise talk by Vice President Pence and his lovely wife. Can you imagine saying the pledge of allegiance and singing our National Anthem with such a crowd!

Of course, the buildings in our national Capital are stunning and majestic. We were truly blessed to participate in this event.

Hopefully, many more will be moved to attend the 2020 National Right to Life March.
