

Written by Contributing Writer Liam Hatgas

Spotlight on Mrs. Dosen

On September 21, 2018, I had the opportunity to meet Mrs. Dosen, one of our new teachers here at Saint Charles Borromeo School. I learned many things about Mrs. Dosen, beginning with the fact that Mrs. Dosen likes to read, play any sport, and spend time with her family. Her favorite food is pizza, but tacos are a close second. Mrs. Dosen teaches fifth and sixth English Language Arts (ELA), and sixth grade social studies. When I heard that Mrs. Dosen teaches ELA, I had to know what her favorite book was! This question was hard for her, since she has read so many books. She decided on The Outsiders, by S.E. Hinton.

Before joining the Saint Charles faculty, Mrs. Dosen spent her elementary years right here at Saint Charles School! Since the time when she was a student at Saint Charles, Mrs. Dosen said there are plenty of new teachers, students, and a new principal, Mrs. Updegrove. After graduating from St. Charles School, Mrs. Dosen went just down the street to Parma Senior High. Mrs. Dosen went on to become a proud graduate of The Ohio State University. After Mrs. Dosen graduated, she taught for four years, and then came back to Saint Charles to start her fifth year of teaching.

When asked for one piece of advice she would give to St. Charles students, Mrs. Dosen responded with the classic reading teacher response: READ, READ, READ!!! Great advice, Mrs. Dosen! The Pawprints staff and the whole Saint Charles community are thrilled to welcome you back, and wish you a wonderful school year.

(Article Published on October 5, 2018)