Liturgy of the Word

In the first reading, we hear God's call to Jeremiah and His assurance that He will always be with him, no matter how much others oppose him. In Paul's letter to the Corinthians, he speaks of the more excellent way of love, the very foundation of the Christian life. Jesus, in the Gospel, is not accepted in His own hometown.

God calls some people, such as Jeremiah, to be prophets to bring others to Him by speaking God's words to them. Most of us, however, are called to be witnesses through the love that we show each day in our actions and words. No matter what we do, it must always be expressed in love.
