Today is the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR FATHER IN FAITH. The Letter to the Hebrews today sings a hymn of praise to Abraham and to his faith, upon which are founded the religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Abraham is called “father” in faith by more people on earth than anybody else, numerous as the sands of the seashore or the stars of the heavens. Hebrews tells us it was this foundational faith that led Abraham to obey God’s call when he heard it, though he was called to journey to a land he did not know and told he would father a mighty race through a marriage he thought was barren. But Abraham’s faith, the author of Hebrews tells us, was his realization of what he hoped for, and the evidence of what he could not see. How often are we, in simple daily events of our own Christian vocation, called to an unfamiliar place or told we are to do something we do not believe we can? How fortunate we are to have Father Abraham as our guide and example!

PLEASE HELP WITH OUR PRAYER LISTS!

We need to do some serious editing of our present Please Keep in Your Prayers Bulletin Page. These names (134) have been submitted by parishioners over the years and this page stays on the Altar of Sacrifice during our Masses. Many of these names need to be removed for various reasons but usually only the parishioner that requested the prayers knows the status. Call the Parish Office or leave a note in the Collection Basket if the name is to remain on the list. (PLEASE DO NOT TELL STAFF WHEN THEY ARE AT MASS! We will more than likely forget or lose the note:(At the beginning of August, if we have not heard from anyone about a particular name, they will be deleted. Many thanks for your help with this important ministry! The names will be printed in BOLD when we receive the information. God Bless!

The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflecting on God's Word

It's tempting to wish that our faith in God enabled us to have an unfailing trust that God will take us where we want to be. It would free us from diddling with decisions, vacillating and second-guessing. Only that wouldn't be faith because it would be our own script we'd have God carrying out.

Faith in God surrenders the script. It also surrenders the outcome, which is why Abraham, when asked by God to pack up kin and belongings and move to another land, did just that without knowing where or how he'd eventually settle in. And much later, like the unpredictable thread of a good novel, Abraham's story finds him and Sarah with child when they are 100 and 90 years old. A decade or so later, Abraham again finds himself without any sensible or sane understanding of the storyline as he leads young Isaac up a sacrificial mountain to what would seem to be a failure of God's promise to Abraham to father countless generations. Once more God rewrites the ending. Throughout Abraham's life it is God's script that Abraham lives out, not his own.

Faith is unpredictable, like good novels that twist and turn and keep us in suspense. If novels are well written, they keep us up long into the night. On the other hand, we like our lives quite the opposite. The appearance of the unpredictable tends to unsettle and undo our living. We presume that good lives, unlike a good novel, are interesting and engaging but always deliberately focused and free of unwarranted surprises. And so we expect good novels and good lives to be like the tracks of the railroad-parallel, but never touching or crossing lest someone or something be derailed.

~ Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

Living God's Word

Growth and change are always the result of conflict, of clashing visions that force adaptation. This is not to say that God writes tragedies and suffering into the script, but only that God uses all the unfolding twists and turns of the plot to bring the story to a divine conclusion.
