Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 7, 2018

The Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

HE EMBRACED THEM AND BLESSED THEM. Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God's love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ's love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it.

What you can BRING (a side dish, salad, or dessert); What can you HELP with (SET UP or BREAK DOWN). In order for this to be the success it has always been, we need LOTS of help. Remember, this is a parish-wide event, not just for members of the Men's Club and Women's Club who do much of the organizing and spearheading. Please help!

Special Announcement

Cathy Hood-Pittenger, OLL Parishioner and long-time Client Advocate with Catholic Charities of the Midlands and the Diocese of Charleston, has resigned from that position. She has taken a job with United Way as their Homeless Services Coordinator. Our congratulations to Cathy as this position will allow her to continue and grow the wonderful work done in Columbia on behalf of the homeless. Cathy will no longer be able to transport the donations left in the bin at OLL for Catholic Charities/Clean of Heart. People can continue to donate, but we are asking if anyone would be willing to take over this ministry of taking the donated items to the Catholic Charities main office in Columbia at 1427 Pickens Street. Please call the Parish Office at 803.345.3962 if you are interested in coordinating these efforts.

Join Lisa Cotter as she shares insights that just may pave the way for a lasting romantic relationship. In this talk delivered to a group of college-aged men at the 2011 FOCUS Conference, nationally sought-after speaker Lisa Cotter addresses an important but often overlooked topic — emotional purity. Today's readings give us a wonderful refresher on the Biblical origins of the Sacrament of Marriage, going all the way back to the second chapter of Genesis in our First Reading, and then reinforced by Jesus in our Gospel Reading from St. Mark.

Perhaps more than any other time in Christianity, marriage and family life are under attack right now. It is vital that we have a proper understanding of the Church's beautiful and solid teachings in these areas. We call this type of knowledge, "Formation" and it is one of the pillars of a stewardship way of life. Solid formation in the faith not only strengthens us in our own walk with the Lord, but it allows us to pass on this knowledge to others who are thirsting to know the truth about the human person, and it also arms us to defend our beliefs, when necessary.

These readings also invite us to reflect on the reality that we are to be good stewards of the vocation the Lord has entrusted to us. If I am married, do I recognize that my spouse and my marriage are a gift from God that must be nourished, developed and tended? This brings to mind the stewardship aspect of "Time." After time spent with God, my next priority of time should be for my spouse. Do I realize that at the end of my life I will have to give an account to God for how I cared for the gift of my spouse and marriage?

Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.
