FESTIVAL PLANNING MEETING

A Planning Meeting for the Parish Fall Festival will be held:

All parishioners are invited to attend to help plan the Parish's 42nd Annual Fall Festival!

August 3, 2014
Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

All you who are thirsty come to the water
- Isaiah 55:1a

GRACE IS EVERYWHERE

Grace is everywhere. People of faith act on this belief. As Christians we are called to reach deeply into ourselves and find God's presence there. We are called to reach outside ourselves and find God there, too.

The reality of grace has sustained and nourished people beyond numbering. The church never tires of telling the story of the loaves and fishes. It is narrated no less than six times in the four Gospels. We imagine the hesitant apostles reaching into the baskets and finding bread, always more bread. We anticipate the ending. The apostles will wear out before the bread runs out.

At another time and place, Isaiah also spoke of an abundance, this time of water, sweet honey, and rich milk. Always, always God is a gift-giver, and we the receivers. Our response is doxology, or praise. In the second reading Paul provides the words and attitude. Praise is everywhere.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Two years ago Michon and her children had gotten their own apartment and left the safety of the women's shelter behind. Three weeks ago she brought the children back for the first time since they had left. They came for the feast celebrating the grand opening of the shelter's new addition. The feast had felt just like old times, only better, with plenty of speeches, laughter, tears, and hugs, and more than enough food to go around. Michon was glad to be able to bring a big chicken salad to share. There had been plenty of meals when she had had nothing to contribute. At the feast everyone commented on how happy Michon's children looked and how much they'd grown. Since then she had already returned to the shelter four times as a volunteer.

A feast could be defined as a large gathering of people to share food and memories in celebration of a significant event or vision. Feasts have an amazing power to heal and nourish our spirits, to bind us together in love, and motivate us to care for one another. The feasts in today's scriptures illustrate the miraculous physical and spiritual nourishment that takes place when we gather for the Eucharist, to celebrate the memory and promise of "the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:39).

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Food Link

Did you know that the Food Link comes to our parish on the first Thursday of the month at 7:30am to help provide food for families in need. They park in the west parking lot of the church, off Florin Road. They distribute food to families living in the 95828, 95829 and 95826 zipcodes.

Water Distribution

Members of the Social Justice Ministry continue to deliver bottled water to the homeless throughout the summer months. Containers for your donations are in the entrances to the church. If anyone would rather give a monetary donation for us to purchase some water, please put it in an envelopes marked, "SJM for Water" and either bring it to the parish office, or put it in the collection basket at Mass. We are truly grateful to all who have already been so generous with their donations to the homeless, especially during these hot summer months. Bless you for your kindness.

Free Magazines

There are free copies of "The Advocate" in the entrances to the church. This magazine is a publication by Live Action, a pro-life organization. Adults and older teens are invited to take one copy of the two different publications, issue #12 and issue #13.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

. Most parishes are now aware of the catechumenate and the journey of new faithful in the RCIA, but this form of sacramental initiation disappeared from view in the thirteenth century along with many other ancient practices. Life back then was hard, and often too short, and priests were increasingly insistent about the responsibility of parents to baptize children in danger of death. Since everyone in that society was under unimaginable threat from famine, warfare, and plague, the liturgical rites changed quickly. Everyone was in danger of death all the time. No longer were babies immersed in fonts, being lowered into the water, although the ritual books never backed down from immersion. Infusion was the new way, a simple pouring of a few drops of water on the child's forehead.

The catechumenate collapsed, being reduced to the recitation of the Creed and an Our Father at every baptism. Amazingly, any provision for adult baptism was shelved, so that as late as the 1950s, a person being baptized was presumed to be an infant, unable to answer for him or herself. Questions of creed and commitment were put to the godparents, not to the person being baptized. Even Dorothy Day and Thomas Merton, famous adult converts, remained mute at their baptisms while their sponsors answered for them. In hindsight all this appears strikingly odd, yet it was accepted as the way things were. We have good reason to give thanks for the vigorous reforms of the last fifty years!

Decimotavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 3 de agosto de 2014

LA GRACIA ESTA EN TODAS PARTES

La gracia está en todas partes. La gente de fe actúa según esa creencia. Los cristianos estamos llamados a buscar dentro de lo más profundo de nuestro ser para encontrar la presencia de Dios allí. Estamos llamados también a buscar afuera de nosotros para encontrarlo allí también.

La realidad de la gracia ha sostenido y alimentado a la gente por encima de todo. La Iglesia nunca se cansa de contar la historia de los panes y los pescados. Se cuenta seis veces en los cuatro evangelios. Nos podemos imaginar a los dudosos Apóstoles metiendo la mano en las canastas y encontrando pan y más pan. Anticipamos el final. Los Apóstoles se cansaron antes de que se acabara el pan.

En otro tiempo y lugar, Isaías también habló de una abundancia, esta vez de agua, miel y rica leche. Dios siempre es un dador de dones y nosotros los beneficiarios. Nuestra respuesta es la doxología o alabanza. En la segunda lectura Pablo proporciona las palabras y la actitud. La alabanza está en todas partes.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Esta semana celebramos la fiesta de la Virgen de Copacabana. Copacabana es la capital de Manco Cápac, Bolivia. En dicho lugar, un descendiente de los reyes incas, Francisco Tito Yupanqui buscó esculpir una imagen de la Candelaria. Su primera imagen fue colocada en la iglesia por su párroco, pero llegó un nuevo párroco quien la sacó del templo por tosca y fea. El pobre de Tito viajó a Potosí, Bolivia, donde emprendió cursos de escultura. Con el tiempo esculpió otra imagen de la Candelaria. Esta vez estudió varias imágenes de María y mandó ofrecer una Misa a la Santísima Trinidad pidiéndole la inspiración necesaria para esculpir una imagen digna de la Virgen. Los años de práctica en su arte, unidos a su devoción, le ayudaron a esculpir una imagen fina y bella que en 1583 fue colocada en su propio santuario.

La Virgen de Copacabana tiene uno de los primeros santuarios marianos en América Latina. Curiosamente, se celebra el 5 de agosto, día que María hizo nevar en la antigua ciudad de Roma, Italia, para mostrar dónde deseaba tener su primer templo.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — A ver ustedes, que andan con sed, ¡vengan a tomar agua! (Isaías 55:1-3).

Salmo — La mano del Señor nos alimenta; responde a todas nuestras necesidades (Salmo 145 [144]).

Segunda lectura — Nada podrá apartarnos del amor de Dios que encontramos en Cristo Jesús (Romanos 8:35, 37-39).

Evangelio — Todos comieron hasta saciarse (Mateo 14:13-21).

XV111 DOMINGO ORDINARIO

Hoy la liturgia nos vuelve a preguntar: ¿Qué nos satisface verdaderamente? En una sociedad donde la obesidad predomina y donde el alimento físico parece más importante que el espiritual, la palabra de Dios nos ofrece una respuesta. Dios se presenta en el Antiguo Testamento como el que quiere saciar el hambre y la sed de su pueblo y Jesús en el Evangelio se dispone a dar de comer a una gran muchedumbre. Ante tantas bendiciones, ¿qué o quién nos puede apartar del amor con el que Cristo nos ama? Quizás para grupos pequeños, y entre los servidores de la liturgia, la comisión de la liturgia pudiera preparar en forma breve lo que significa hoy en día cada una de las realidades que San Pablo presenta como obstáculo en la segunda lectura: ¿Las tribulaciones? ¿Las angustias? ¿La persecución? ¿El hambre? A la vez, se puede preguntar ¿qué nos mantiene unidos al amor de Cristo?
