TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoice and be glad for I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of nations like an overflowing torrent (Isaiah 66:10-14c).

Psalm — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus sends his disciples out in pairs to bring his peace and proclaim the kingdom of God

July 3, 2016
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.
-Galatians 6:14

PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today's readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "LORD's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Some say tomato—and some say tomahto—you know the old song. What do you say when you arrive at church and see a font prepared, a baby in the wings, the paschal candle burning? Well, maybe you will say that "we're having a baptism today," or maybe you say "we are having a christening." The proper term is baptism, since that is the name of the sacrament. But the persistent use of "christening" in our culture, probably from due to the influence of the Episcopal Church, is interesting.

Baptism, an ancient word, is from the Greek meaning to dip or to dunk. Christening is an Old English word that describes perfectly well that more than getting splashed with water, the person being baptized is being "Christ-ed." No matter what you call it, there's always water involved, and then an anointing with chrism—fragrant olive oil consecrated as a sign of Christ's presence—poured upon the brow as we say, "As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet, and King, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life."

So, in being Christ-ed, you are conformed to his image, your life is expected to be a retelling of his life in miniature and you—even though you may be squirming or sleeping—are commissioned to be a priest, a prophet, a king. This means that you are called to be one who worships, you are called to speak the truth, you are called to shape the world and exercise right judgment. That is the deepest treasure of our tradition, and every time you gather to celebrate a baptism, you renew your vows precisely so that you can be more "Christ-ed." No matter what vocabulary you assign to the liturgy, the key is transformation of the human person in the community of the Body of Christ.

SECOND COLLECTIONS

July 16/17

This collection provides funds to help St. Paul parishioners. It may help put food on the table, help pay electric or gas bills, or it may help buy gas so that the parishioner may use their car to look for work. These funds go directly to help our fellow parishioners in need.

August 6/7

St. Paul Building Fund & Capital Campaign

This collection will help provide funds to repay the funds borrowed from the Diocese to build the Religious Education Center.

Parishioners who have pledged to the "Our Dream Continues In Service To All" campaign may use Pink Envelopes to make their pledge payments.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

CIA Torture

During June, Torture Awareness Month, it should be noted that last year the US Senate took a bipartisan vote to end CIA torture. They voted on the McCain-Feinstein Amendment to the National Defense Authorization Act. For people of faith this vote expressed a widely held moral principle that torture is morally wrong.

Our Catholic Church reminds us that torture is never justified. It is wrong. As Christians, we are called to be people of compassion and to follow the way of Christ in our lives.

Bottled Water

The Social Justice Ministry continues to collect bottled water for those living on the streets. Can you imagine how hot and thirsty the homeless men and women must be during the summer months? Containers for your donations are in the entryways of the church.

End of Life

On June 9th, in what the Bishops of California have called a "travesty of compassion." physicians in California were legally allowed to prescribe a lethal dose of drugs to a patient. The hastening of death by a physician is such a fundamental shift in the doctor-patient relationship that Catholic hospitals and many other secular healthcare providers, such as hospice programs and physicians, have already stated that they will not participate in that law.

Thank You

Members of the Social Justice Ministry thank all who supported our Bake Sale last weekend. All proceeds will go to purchase school shoes for children in need in our area. If any family in our parish is finding it difficult to purchase school shoes contact Lorraine (916)363-0365, before the end of June.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Fireworks Booth

The Knights Fireworks Booth will be open from 9:00am to dark through July 4th. Please plan to buy your fireworks from your St. Paul Knights of Columbus.

Donuts and Coffee

The Knights will be hosting donuts on the Sundays in July. This takes place on the plaza in front of church, weather permitting. Come and enjoy donuts, coffee, hot chocolate and tea for just a donation.

Parish Breakfast

There will be no Parish Breakfast in July due to the Independence Day Holiday and the parish hall will be used for the White Elephant Sale preparation during the month of July.

Join the Knights of Columbus

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Knight please ask any Knight, they should all be wearing their name badges, or call Roger Tafoya at (916) 936-3810.

HEALTH MINISTRY

SUMMER HEAT—Another silent killer

One of the biggest health hazards effecting our region during the summer is heat.

We don't realize how deadly heat can be. In contrast to the visible, destructive and violent nature of fire, floods and earthquakes, heat is another "silent killer," Human bodies dissipate heat by varying the rate and depth of blood circulation, by losing water through the skin and sweat glands.

The body does everything it can to maintain 98.6 degrees inside. Heat disorders happen when the body can't maintain that temperature. Disorders can range from simple discomfort to serious injury and even death, e.g. sunburn, heat cramps, exhaustion or heat stroke. They all share one common feature, a person has overexposed or over exercised for his or her age, physical condition and the weather.

Reduce your chances of disorders by following a few simple steps:

Slow Down—reduce strenuous activities or reschedule them to a cooler time of day.

Dress for summer—lightweight, light colored clothing, cover all exposed skin with high SPF sunscreen and wear a wide brimmed hat.

Drink plenty of water, avoid caffeine,, soda and fruit juices.

Check on the elderly, young children and people with health problems or disabilities.

Keep pets indoors or provide them with shade and plenty of water. Do not leave pets, or anyone else in a closed, parked vehicle

Décimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 3 de julio 2016

LA PAZ

El saludo de la paz en la Misa fundamenta un mensaje de las lecturas de hoy: la paz es relacional. Cuando le damos la paz a la persona que está cerca de nosotros en la Misa, compartimos el roce de un apretón de manos o un abrazo, el contacto visual sincero y palabras amistosas.

Las Escrituras hablan de una paz similar. La primera lectura de Isaías describe la paz como la ciudad sagrada, Jerusalén, un lugar de prosperidad y de consuelo donde “Los siervos del Señor conocerán su poder”.

El entendimiento cristiano de la paz cambia ligeramente. San Pablo escribe sobre “la paz y la misericordia” para todos los que son nuevas criaturas. Jesús describe un sentimiento de paz que se posará sobre los que aceptan a sus discípulos y a su mensaje.

La paz es tanto la ausencia de conflictos como una bendición personal. Que siempre y sinceramente traigamos paz a nuestras propias vidas mientras la compartimos con los demás.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En muchos santuarios de latinoamérica y Europa se pueden encontrar diversas ofrendas que han dejado los fieles a través de los siglos. Entre estas ofrendas es de particular relieve el exvoto. Exvoto (una frase en latín que se traduce “del voto”) es el regalo que se le presenta al santo o a la santa en reconocimiento del favor recibido. Esto también se llama “manda”.

Los exvotos o mandas toman varias formas desde pequeñas medallas en forma de la parte del cuerpo que fue sanado hasta pinturas del milagro concedido. El exvoto más antiguo en América es de una pintura mandada a hacer por Hernán Cortés en honor de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe de Extremadura (España). Esta imagen reconocía el hecho de ser salvado del piquete de un alacrán mientras estaba en México. Lamentablemente esta pintura se extravió en el siglo XIX.

En realidad el santo o la santa no necesita el exvoto pero los creyentes sí. Estas mandas nos recuerdan el poder de la intercesión divina en la vida humana. También nos invitan al agradecimiento de los favores que Dios nos hace.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Regocijense y alégrense porque extenderé la prosperidad sobre Jerusalén como un río (Isaías 66:10-14c).

Salmos — Las obras del Señor son admirables (Salmo 66 [65]).

Segunda lectura — Que nunca me gloríe excepto en la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo (Gálatas 6:14-18).

Evangelio — Jesús envía sus discípulos de dos en dos a llevar su paz a la gente (Lucas 10:1-12, 17-20) [1-9].

Contempla la misericordia significativa verla impresa en el rostro de Cristo que esta vivo y realmente presente en el ministerio de la Santa Eucaristía.

ADORACIÓN ECUMENICA

Oración Ecuménica e interreligiosa.— El Santo Padre, en el n. 23 de la bula, recomienda que en este Año Jubilar se presenta especialmente atención a la dimensión ecuménica e interreligiosa, a fin de que se suspenda, con la esperanza de anularlo definitivamente, todo juicio y prejuicio con respecto a nuestras iglesias hermanas y las demás confesiones religiosas, en busca de unidad, del respeto recíproco y de la paz de los corazones y los pueblos:

La misericordia posee un valor que sobrepasa los confines de la Iglesia. Ella nos relaciona con el judaísmo y el islam, que la consideran uno de los atributos más calificativos de Dios... Este Año Jubilar vivido en la misericordia puede favorecer el encuentro con estas religiones y con las otras nobles tradiciones religiosas; nos haga más abiertos al diálogo para conocernos y comprendernos mejor; elimine toda forma de cerrazón y desprecio, y aleje cualquier forma de violencia y discriminación.

A 50 años de la declaración conciliar Notra aetate, por tanto, estamos llamados a sentir en mayor grado la necesidad de orar por el don de la unidad entre los cristianos y de la paz y la fraternidad con los miembros de las otras religiones. Esta oración encuentra su síntesis en la oración universal del Viernes Santo y su continuación en nuestras comunidades, especialmente en la Semana de Oración por la Unidad de los Cristianos. Por esto es oportuno que en cada comunidad cristiana se dediquen momentos especiales de plegarias y oraciones para implorar de Dios estos dones. También ha de encontrarse el modo, sobre todo Iglesias, catedrales, de organizar celebraciones de la Palabra con otros hermanos cristianos de otras confesiones.
