

NET Ministries Scotland is a new youth ministry which has the purpose of sharing the Gospel message with young people through school and parish retreats. It also provides young people aged 18-28 the opportunity to participate in a year-long experience of mission and Catholic formation. A team comprised of 10 trained young Catholic missionaries are in Scotland from the 23rd May - 30th June 2017 giving retreats in Secondary Schools. Please pray for the success of their work and that this peer to peer ministry will develop and grow.

The Team will be at Saint Helen's this Sunday and will speak at all the Masses to tell you more about their mission and to appeal for your support for their work with our Scottish young people. This is a fledgling movement, which is just starting off in Scotland but has already done wonderful work. Please be as generous as you can to help them go from strength to strength. Their mission statement says it all: 'NET Ministries Scotland - encouraging young Catholics to love Jesus and embrace the life of the Church'

FORTY HOURS

In thanksgiving to God for the graces of our Forty Hours last week. Although the numbers attending were not large, those who did attend benefited spiritually from the preaching of our two visiting priests who led us into a deeper appreciation of the gift we have in the Eucharist. Thanks to everyone involved.

NEW CANDLES

We hope that you are enjoying having real candles once again at Saint Helen's. For those who have expressed Health and Safety concerns, be reassured that the system is safe and is the only system endorsed for use by our insurance company. Please use the electronic lighters which are provided and do not light one candle from another.

VOLUNTEERS

We are grateful for all that is done by faithful volunteers at Saint Helen's. Those who hold PVG certificates because of the nature of the work they do are reminded that they are required to complete annual training sessions as part of our commitment to safeguarding. If you were unable to attend the last time, the next opportunity will be 28th August from 7.00 until 9.00 pm at the Curial Offices, Clyde Street. Please make a note of the date.

CATHOLIC YOUTH SURVEY

Are you 11-35 years of age? The Catholic Church wants to hear from you. In 2018 Pope Francis and the bishops of the Church will be meeting to talk about you! They want to know what your life is like, the ways that you engage with the Church, and what you think of God's plan for your life. In order to give them something to work with you are invited to take a survey. As well as making your contribution to the discussion, when you participate you have the chance of winning £100 – take the survey at <http://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/CYSSYS/> will meet at 1.00 pm for a matinee and also at 7.00 pm on Thursday 6th July at Saint Mungo's, Townhead. This month's film is "For Greater Glory" (2012) cert.15 New members are welcome – big screen, tea coffee and chat.

AGAP FILM AND FAITH CLUB

LECTIO DIVINA DRAMATICA

Exploring the Scriptures through drama. No charge and no obligation to commitment. Takes place on the first Tuesday of the month starting on 4th July at 7.30 pm in the AGAP Centre at Saint Mungo's, Townhead.

CELEBRATIONS THIS WEEK

Friday 23rd is the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart, Saturday 24th is the Birthday of Saint John the Baptist.

VOLUNTEER TRAINING

It is mandatory that all our PVG registered volunteers participate in regular Safeguarding Awareness Sessions. Level 1 Safeguarding training is being held in the Curial Offices, Clyde Street on Monday 28th August from 7pm until 9pm. Any new PVG members or any existing PVG volunteers who have not attended a training session are strongly encouraged to attend this session. Those volunteers who work with children and vulnerable adults need to undertake this training. Please make a note of the date.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 147:12-15, 19-20

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

Zion, praise your God!

He has strengthened the bars of your gates

he has blessed the children within you.

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

He established peace on your borders,

he feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command.

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

He makes his word known to Jacob, to Israel his laws and decrees.

He has not dealt thus with other nations;

he has not taught them his decrees.

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn6:51

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven,

says the Lord.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 6:51-58

My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.' Then the Jews started arguing with one another:

'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied: 'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him. As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me. This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart – whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord. 'Do not become proud of heart. Do not forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery
