

NOVEMBER: MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

November Lists are available at the back of the Church. Those whose names you include in your list will have a remembrance at Mass every day in November.

MASS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED IN THE LAST YEAR

While Mass is celebrated every day in November for all our faithful departed, on Saturday 10th November at 12 noon we will remember particularly all those whose funerals were celebrated in Saint Helen's since last November. All those who gave permission for their contact details to be used will receive an invitation. There will be a cup of tea in the hall after the Mass. Please note that on this Saturday only there will be no 10.00 am Mass. Even if you lost someone close to you in the course of the year and their funeral did not take place at Saint Helen's, you are welcome to come and light a candle and pray for them with the parish community.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR

We hope to start a little children's singing group for a couple of events during Advent and Christmas. If your child is interested, please bring them along to the meeting room next to the sacristy next Sunday (11th November) for a first practice after the 11.00 am Mass.

RCIA

...stands for the 'Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults' and is the way we help someone to discern whether they are being called into the life of the Catholic Church, either through baptism or by formal reception if they have been baptised in another Church. If you, or someone you know has been thinking about becoming a Catholic, please contact Mgr. Paul for a no obligation chat about what's involved.

SENIOR CITIZENS' CLUB

Our Senior Citizens' Club, now renamed the Glasgow Golden Generation meets every Wednesday at 12.30 pm in the hall. All welcome.

SCIAF REMEMBRANCE MASS:

In November, the month of the Holy Souls, SCIAF remembers those supporters who are no longer with us. Holy Mass is celebrated in memory of all those who've been touched by our work here in Scotland and around the world. The Mass will be concelebrated by Archbishop Toal, Bishop President of SCIAF and Fr. Francis McGachey at St Francis Xavier's Church, Taylor Avenue, Carfin on Thursday 22nd November at 7 pm. If you are not able to attend on this occasion but would like a loved one to be remembered at the Mass please contact Siobhan or Donna on 0141 354 5555.

ITALIAN COMMUNITY MASS:

Mass for the deceased family and friends of the Italian community will take place at 7pm on Monday November 5 at St Andrew's Cathedral. This year Archbishop Conti will be the main concelebrant with music provided by the girls of Notre Dame High. All welcome.

NEWMAN ASSOCIATION:

The 1918 Act: was it indeed a panacea for Catholic Education in Scotland. A talk by Professor Sir Tom Devine at The Ogilvie Centre, St Aloysius' Church, Rose Street, Glasgow, G3 6RE at 7.30pm on Wednesday 21st November 2018. All welcome. Non-members: admission £3 - includes refreshments.

ST MARGARET'S ADOPTION SOCIETY:

We are currently looking to recruit prospective adopters. If you have ever thought about adoption as a way to grow your family and would like to know more, please contact our office for a chat with one of our friendly and experienced staff on 0141 332 8371 or email info@stmargaretsadoption.org.uk.

20-40 NETWORK QUIZ NIGHT

Aged 20-40? Our events are a great place for meeting fellow young Catholics. We are having a Quiz night in St. Mirin's Cathedral Hall so why not come along and test your knowledge of all things Scottish to bring in St. Andrew's Day. Saturday 24th November at 7pm. Email 2040network@gmail.com to buy a £10 ticket or join our mailing list to find out about future events if you can't make this one.

CATHOLIC NURSES GUILD:

The Annual Day of Recollection will be held on Saturday 17th November from 10.30am – 4pm at the Schoenstatt Centre. The cost of the Day is £20, for further information and booking please telephone 01475 725252 or 0131 665 3639. All health care workers and friends are welcome.

MUSICIANS URGENTLY NEEDED:

The music group are looking for new members to help lead the music at the 11am Mass on Sundays. If you are a musician or a singer willing to help please chat to a member of the group after 11am mass or pass your details to Monsignor Paul or Deacon Kevin. Come on! There must be some musicians out there!

ORGAN RECITAL

Under the auspices of the Glasgow Society of Organists on Saturday 17th November at 2.00 pm in Christ the King Church. The organist will be Martin Baker of Westminster Cathedral and the programme will contain a range of classic pieces for organ. Donation programme is £8 which includes refreshments.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowls about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

PSALM

Psalm 17:2-4,47,51

I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my
stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise,
when I call I am saved from my foes.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me,
He has given great victories to his king
and shown his love for his anointed.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 7:23-28

There used to be a great number of
priests under the former covenant,
because death put an end to each
one of them; but this one, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. It follows, then, that his power to save is utterly certain,
since he is living for ever to intercede
for all who come to God through him.
To suit us, the ideal high priest would have to be holy, innocent and uncontaminated, beyond the influence of sinners, and raised up above the heavens; one who would not need to offer sacrifices every day, as the other high priests do for their own sins and then for those of the people, because he has done
this once and for all by offering himself. The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath,
which came after the Law, appointed

the Son who is made perfect for ever.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf. Jn 6:63,68

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your words are spirit, Lord, and they
are life;
you have the message of eternal life.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 12:28-34

One of the scribes came up to Jesus
and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?'
Jesus replied, 'This is the first:
Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart,
with all your soul, with all your mind
and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.'
The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken,
Master; what you have said is true:
that he is one and there is no other.
To love him with all your heart, with
all your understanding and strength,
and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.'
Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more.

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Moses said to the people: 'If you fear
the Lord your God all the days of your life and if you keep all his laws and commandments which I lay on you,
you will have a long life, you and your son and your grandson. Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosper and give you great increase, as the Lord the God of your fathers has promised you, giving you a land where milk and honey flow.
'Listen, Israel: the Lord our God is the one Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength. Let these words I urge on you today be written on your heart.'
