Pentecost

Acts 2:1-4 tells the story of something wonderful that happened to Jesus' disciples!

To find out what it was, number the sentences in correct order from beginning to end.

A noise, like strong wind, came from the sky.

They saw tongues of fire!

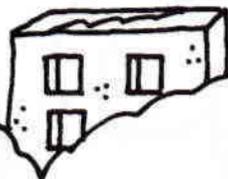

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit!

They were all together.

The noise filled the whole house!

The fire divided and settled onto them.

And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues.

Acts 2 : 4

COME, HOLY SPIRIT

On the feast of Pentecost, before the Gospel is proclaimed, we sing or pray the Veni, Sancte Spiritus ("Come, Holy Spirit"). This prayer is called a Sequence, a hymn of praise sung on certain feasts during the liturgical year—Easter, Pentecost, and the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi).

The Holy Spirit is often represented as fire, wind, or a dove. The Sequence refers to the Holy Spirit by many different names and images. Here are a few. Choose one or two and draw your own illustration. Talk with someone or think about how these names and images help us to understand more about the Holy Spirit's work in us.

God has sent us a helper to help us do right and make good choices.

Color all the flames with two letters.

The letters that are left will spell the helper's name.

Write it onto the blanks in the fire at the bottom.
