April 11, 2016

Dear parishioners,

I have finally had a little time to catch my breath after the Easter Triduum to reflect and thank God for you who helped make it such a glorious Easter Worship!

This worship experience began with the Lenten weekly Stations of the Cross and your fasting and prayers which helped us appreciate the sacrifice that Jesus offered for us.

The Holy Thursday Liturgy included the Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Eucharist and the Washing of the Feet, and the transfer of the Blessed Sacrament to the Saint Juan Diego Room for adoration. This night began the solemnity of the Passion and was indeed holy.

The Good Friday Liturgy began at 3:00 pm with the Stations of the Cross which moved to the Procession of the Cross in the neighborhood with recitation of the rosary. This readied us for the powerful spiritual and emotional Veneration of the Cross and finally, the reception of the Holy Eucharist.

Saturday night as darkness covered the earth the Easter Vigil began with the lighting of the fire and the lighting of the Easter Candle and the passing of the light from one person to another until the dark church came alive with the Light of Christ. As we sang the Gloria hundreds of beautiful flowers were brought in to decorate the church. We read the Old Testament readings which talked about the greatness of God and His promise of Jesus our salvation. We welcomed three new members into church community by their baptism and confirmation and then celebrated a glorious Mass with beautiful music and worship.

Easter Sunday morning, we celebrated Masses at 8:30 am and 11:00 am. The music, the readings, and your participation was so joyful.

Thanks to everyone: the greeters, the music ministers, the lectors, the altar servers, the environment ministry, the extraordinary ministers of Communion and to everyone who attended and participated fully.

Alleluia He is Risen! Christ lives among us!

April 17 Abortion of children with disabilities is rampant; however, "if we believe that God creates each and every one of us, and that He has a purpose then for each and every one of us, even those who may experience disabilities which others do not, then it is not our place to end that person's life. To do so is to play God". (Rebecca Downs, Life News, 9/10/14).

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

Second Collection next weekend Saturday, April 23rd and Sunday, April 24th – Catholic Home Mission Appeal – The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place next week. One way that this appeal works to support home missions' dioceses in the United States is by supporting seminarian formation in poor dioceses. The blessing of seminarians places a financial burden on these dioceses, because educating each seminarian costs $35-40K per year. Your support is needed for these young men so that they might go back and serve their parishes. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift to next week's appeal.

La próxima semana realizaremos el Llamado para las Misiones Católicas. Una manera en que este llamado sirve para apoyar a las diócesis misioneras en Estados Unidos es apoyando la formación de seminaristas en las diócesis pobres. La bendición de contar con unos seminaristas pone una carga financier en estas diócesis ya que la educación de cada seminarista cuesta entre $35 a 40 mil dólares al año. Su apoyo es necesario para que estos jóvenes pueden regresar y server en sus parroquias. Por favor, fortalezca la Iglesia en casa dando una generosa donación al llamado de la próxima semana.

Sunday Collection
04/10/2016

Envelope $5,850.00
Loose $2,992.04
Total $8,842.04

Average Collections per week needed: $9,335.00

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

"Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap; because the standard you use will be the standard used for you."

BLINDED BY SIN

When I was in sin, the sight of lepers nauseated me beyond measure; but then God himself led me into their company, and I had pity on them. When I had once become acquainted with them, what had previously nauseated me became a source of spiritual and physical consolation for me.

Sunday's Reflections
Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

DRESSED FOR HEAVEN

We do not know what we will look like in heaven. At the resurrection of the body, will we have the body of our youth? Will we look as we do when we die? These are natural questions, but eternal life will be far greater than what we can now imagine. When we are freed from time and place, we will enter the mysterious presence of God in ways more perfect than we can know.

Still, people use metaphors to envision eternal life, and the Book of Revelation is no exception. John sees a great multitude standing before the throne and the Lamb, "wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands." John saw heaven in a vision of vesture and accessories.

White robes clothe heavenly beings in several passages of the New Testament. Jesus' clothes turn white at the transfiguration. Angels clothed in white appear at the resurrection. Heavenly beings throughout the Book of Revelation wear white. This is one reason why we wear white on the day of our baptism, and why we cover a Christian's coffin with a white cloth. We are clothed already in the uniform of heaven.

The festive palm branch is a sign of the victory of eternal life. Artists throughout the ages have depicted saints carrying palms.

We do not know what we will wear or carry, but we can expect that the Lamb will shepherd us to springs of life-giving water.
