BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

This week we had our second gathering of the newly formed Bereavement/Consolation Support Group, mutual support group for people who have lost a loved one, thru death of a husband, wife, son, daughter, or close friend, or are mourning a loss.

Please read the bulletin for further gatherings, place and times. I am happy to continue facilitating this group at our next gathering, which will be Monday, July 18, 2016 at 7:00 PM-8:30 PM in the East Room or you may come in the front office.

Msgr. Bernard L. Gully

June 14, 2106

Dear Holy Trinity Catholic Parishioners,

I want to extend a big thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make our summer festival a success!

It takes so many people to make everything work smoothly from Arthur and Cruz Olague, the Festival Chairman, the many dedicated cooks, the Youth Group who created and attended the booths, those who worked the booths including the Bingo, those who washed dishes, tables and mopped the floors, and all those who sold raffle tickets, and all those quiet small chores that no one saw except Jesus.

Also, a thanks to those who came to enjoy the festival and support the church with your kind contributions of money. Your efforts helped to build the Catholic Faith in Howard County. This is so important in passing on the Catholic Faith to our children and grandchildren.

May God Bless from his storehouse of riches!
Monsignor Bernard L. Gully

Congratulations

Pro-life Hotline...1-800-395-HELP

June 26 Writing on the topic of assisted suicide, a Columnist asks, Whose life is it anyway? God has given us this life as a gift, and He expects us to cherish it as His good stewards--in old age, in terminal illness and in facing disability. (Sister Constance Veit, of the Little Sisters of the Poor in The Southern Cross, March, 2015)

That all may come to know that the freedom to choose does not include the freedom to choose death for the unborn, the mentally and physically challenged, or the frail elderly, we pray

Sunday's Reflections
Galatians 5:1, 13-18

BITING AND DEVOURING

We are hard on our elected officials. They do not do enough about unemployment. They have not improved the safety of our streets. They have not done enough for education. Gas prices are too high. It is easy to put the blame on someone who holds an office. But we often forget one thing. We put them there.

Throughout a campaign season, candidates appeal for our vote. Their approach is not always complimentary. They sling mud because they know we appreciate a candidate who is tough. They promise us more money in our pockets because they know we do not want to lose any to people who do not deserve it. In the worst cases, if they are caught lying, stealing, and taking advantage of a position of authority, they are guilty of a crime to which we all contributed: the crime of greed, selfishness, and materialism that has stained the character of our society.

All too often we live by the flesh, not by the Spirit. St. Paul would shake his head. "Live by the Spirit," he says. "The flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh." Too many of us bite and devour one another. For Paul, the Christian law is not summed up in this: "Whoever dies with the most toys wins." But in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

We will have a better quality of government, when we share better values among ourselves.
