PRO--LIFE ARTICLES

Pro--Life Articles need volunteers to make approximately 20 telephone calls each month from their homes to Catholic Churches to obtain corrections to email addresses. Will require using Microsoft Excel Computer Software.

Please contact Martin Reiser at reiser33@gmail.com Pro-Life Articles maintains a website www.pro-lifearticles.org and furnishes pro-life articles and related information to Catholic Churches monthly for their church bulletins.

This is all done at no cost to the churches.

Our purpose is to help educate parishioners on issues relative to abortion and other life issues in an effort to reduce and stop abortions.

Our monthly emails are received by over 11,000 recipients.

Sending this many emails each month results in a few emails returned because of recipients changing their email addresses and forgetting to notify us.

I am asking for volunteers to call these churches to obtain the correct email addresses.

Thanks for all you do for the respect and sanctity of life.

Pro-life Hotline... 1-800-395-HELP

Aug 21 -The publication "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship" published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, in its introduction states "As a nation, we share many blessings and strengths, including a tradition of religious freedom and political participation. Catholics have a moral obligation to help stop abortion. Catholics make up approximately 25% of our National Electorate. In November, we as Catholics will have another chance.

It is important that we elect Pro-Life candidates at all levels of our governments – local, state and national.

As the November election time approaches, the State Right To Life organizations may indicate on their websites the names of the Pro-Life candidates in your State.

Please vote this November.

A CLOSE BOND

Contemplative prayer, in my opinion, is nothing else than a close sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with whom we know loves us.

The Gospel message today is so contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

NEW CARPET PROJECT

Sunday's Reflections
Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

FOR YOUR OWN GOOD

"You'll thank me for this one day." Oh, how a kid hates to hear those words. They often accompany some punishment that kids have to put up with until they get older. Kids seethe under those words. They do not make any sense. They take away fun. And they make them mad.

But those words are usually right. Maybe that adds to the frustration. We all hate to do what is "for our own good" when it feels like it is anything but. We do not like being told we did the wrong thing. We do not like to be punished. And we do not like being told to fix our attitude about punishment.

So when the Letter to the Hebrews says God treats us like children, it doesn't quite sound like good news. The author recalls a quote from the Old Testament. It is enough to make you wince: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges."

So, here is the advice we get: "Endure your trials as 'discipline'." We would rather not have to endure trials at all. But when they come, we are supposed to endure them. "At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness."

We do not like hearing it, but it is true: Some day we will thank God for these trials.
