Pro-life Hotline...1-800-395-HELP

May 20 "Even among terminally ill patients, a request to die is nearly always a cry for help. ... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, 'Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?'"

May the Holy Spirit strengthen us to share in word and show in action respect for God's gift of life, we pray to the Lord.

St. Vincent de Paul

The vocation of the Society's members, who are called Vincentians, is to follow Christ through service to those in need and so bear witness to His compassionate and liberating love. Members show their commitment through person-to-person contact. Vincentians serve in hope.

No work of charity is foreign to the Society. It includes any form of help that alleviates suffering or deprivation and promotes human dignity and personal integrity in all their dimensions.

The Society works not only with individuals in need but also with families and communities. It helps an excluded or deprived local community to develop a sense of responsibility and solidarity which leads it to improve its economic, social or environmental well-being, always retaining the personal contact of members with those in need.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Sunday's Reflections
Galatians 5:16-25

THE DANGEROUS SPIRIT

The Spirit is a dangerous thing. You never know where the Spirit will lead. God's Holy Spirit goes where it wills, changes the way people think, and makes them take bold action.

The fruits of the Spirit do not sound dangerous. Paul enumerates them in the Letter to the Galatians: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." Those don't sound troublesome at all. But Paul adds this comment: "Against such there is no law." That sounds like treason.

But Paul argues there is no law against love. No law against generosity. No law against self-control. If a law seems to cross the border, Paul would argue it does not apply. "If you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law."

Of course, the Spirit would have us behave. The Spirit will not lead us to do bad things. Our flesh has unhealthy desires: "immorality, impurity, lust, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factions, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies"—to name a few. Paul says the flesh and the Spirit are opposed to each other. So we must let go of these selfish desires.

But remain open to the Spirit. The Spirit will provoke you to perform acts of joy and peace, random acts of kindness and gentleness. It is a dangerous thing. But it has beautiful results. Today is Pentecost. The Spirit is coming your way today.
