Sunday's Reflections
2 Corinthians 5:14-17

ALIVE FOR CHRIST

If we lived for ourselves, we would give little thought to others. We would spend only on our own desires and not on the needs of others. We would limit family activities to the ones we enjoy. We would not give away money or possessions beyond the deductions that lower our taxes. We would build up the economy at home, even if it meant that people abroad starved or suffered from AIDS. Living for ourselves would be costly to others.

Paul says we should live for Christ. People in his day were sadly living for themselves. In Paul's view, they were "dead". Yes, they were breathing, but they were morally dead. Paul said Christ died for all in order to bring life to those who had died. Yes, he would bring eternal life to the physically dead, but Christ would also bring interior life to the morally dead.

If we live for Christ, we will live for others. We will think not just of ourselves, but of the whole community. We will care about our neighbor, our municipality, and all the countries of the world. We will pay the taxes that improve life for others. We will lay down weapons that impoverish and kill. We will think differently about how we live.

"Whoever is in Christ is a new creation," Paul says. "The old things have passed away; behold, new things have come." We live for others. We live for Christ.
