Sunday's Reflections
Ephesians 2:13-18

THE PATH TO PEACE

Forgiveness can be hard to achieve. If you have broken a relationship that you wish could be restored, you know the longing for reconciliation.

In some cases, you may not even seek reconciliation. You may still be angry over an injury committed against you, your home, or someone you love. You may wonder how one nation could ever reconcile with another after being at war. The death and destruction caused by war lies beyond imagination; healing seems unreachable. Then forgiveness seems not only hard—it seems impossible.

In the first century, the separation between Jews and Gentiles was severe. The Letter to the Ephesians called it a "dividing wall of enmity." It appears the two groups would never agree, never get together, never heal the old wounds.

But then came Jesus, who suffered and died so that everyone might have life. Ephesians says, "He is our peace, he who made both one." Through the cross, Christ put death to death, but he also put enmity to death. "He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father."

Forgiveness may seem unreachable, but all things are possible with Christ. He provides a middle ground where hope is alive, and peace is real. Those who listen to his message and heed his words are already on the path of reconciliation.
