LISTEN FOR GOD'S VOICE IN THE UNEXPECTED

When it comes to prayer, we tend to treat everything as a distraction because we have created in our minds the way in which we expect the Lord to speak. The prophet Elijah made the same mistake. God did not reveal his presence in the way Elijah imagined. Instead, God showed himself in an imperceptible breeze (1 Kings 19:11-13). So listen widely, broadly, unafraid of the sounds around you. Once you stop fighting them, you will hear the Word of God. There is no mistaking it.

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Sunday's Reflections
Ephesians 4:1-6

NOT GETTING ALONG

Fighting can become the status quo. When kids fight at school, someone tries to break it up, but in the end we know they're just kids. Fighting is what kids do. During an election year the mudslinging can get intense. There will be a few calls for civility, but most of us shrug our shoulders. There's nothing we can do. Fighting is what candidates do. Teens and their parents, parents and teachers, contributors to blogs, sometimes even pastors and council members—some groups seem to disagree by their nature. It isn't right, but fighting can become the status quo.

The members of the early church had the same problem. Many New Testament letters indicate that the first Christians believed in Christ, held high ideals, and lived in community—but they didn't always get along.

In one passage from the Letter to the Ephesians, you can just imagine the spats that provoked these words: "I urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace." The readers had to be urged toward those virtues because they were not very evident.

Fighting should never be the status quo. We have a more noble vision of community life. Our one Lord, one faith, and one baptism summon us to be one body and one spirit.
