RCIA WORKSHOP

The RCIA workshop, Celebrando los ritos con autenticidad, will be held in Spanish on November 4, 2018 at the McNease Convention Center from 1:00 to 4:45 p.m. The presenter for the day will be Dr. Dolores Martinez from San Antonio, TX.

This day will be an opportunity to learn more about the RCIA process. Learn how to study a ritual, to its smallest detail, and ask questions about those details that lead us to the liturgical preparation of each rite. Learn also how that detailed preparation informs the content of the catechesis that precedes a Rite, and the catechesis that follows a Rite in their respective periods. Spanish resources will be made available.

For more information, contact the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis at 325-651-7500 or email evangelizationcatechesis@sanangelodiocese.org

BLESSED ARE YOU – NOW

I often speak about the female saints to Catholic women's groups, and two things tug at my heart. The first is the little boxes we try to put these holy women in. They weren't perfect, folks, and they would have been the first to tell you about their struggles with the loss of loved ones, their health, their dignity. The faith and confidence they had in the Lord make them bigger than those little boxes. That brings us to the second thing: Like them, you are blessed. Not tomorrow, not when the kids go off to college, not when you get that next promotion. Now. Today. How do I know that? Because Jesus told us. Note the Beatitudes are not in the future tense, or the past, for that matter. You are blessed now, today and always. Believe it.

—from the book Blessed Are You: Finding Inspiration from Our Sisters in Faith

Sunday's Reflections
Hebrews 4:14-16

HIGH PRIEST LIKE NONE OTHER

Priests are people, but a lot of people feel some distance from priests. Perhaps it's celibacy, the vestments, their residence—or that they usually serve a parish a few years and then leave. People respect priests, love them—but they usually don't get too close.

Apparently, it was also true in the Old Testament. The high priest of the temple offered sacrifice. He was one of the people but regarded as someone different. He was privileged to enter the Holy of Holies, and trusted enough to speak for the people, and to catch the ear of God. Because of his distinguished life, the high priest did not always appreciate the difficulties of ordinary people.

When the Letter to the Hebrews describes Jesus as a high priest, it sets him apart from others. Like other priests, Jesus entered the Holy of Holies, but unlike them he entered heaven itself. Like other high priests, Jesus was human, but unlike them he was also God. And unlike some of them, he knew what it was to suffer. Hebrews says, “We do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin.”

Jesus is our priest. He is like us, yet unlike us. We are close to him, yet he is set apart. “So, let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.”
