PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Creator of the universe and Provident God, Trinitarian model of community life, we implore Your loving blessing upon our living and deceased mothers. We thank You because many of them, and our grandmothers, gave us the unconditional love that You have for us. We pray, through the intercession of Your Most Holy Mother of San Juan del Valle, that You fill our grandmothers and mothers here on earth with Your grace, and we trust that You lovingly care for those who are now at Your side. Amen.

Creador del universo y Dios providente, modelo Trinitario de la vida comunitaria, imploamos Tu bendición amorosa sobre nuestras madres vivas y difuntas. Te damos gracias porque muchas de ellas, y nuestras abuelitas, nos enseñaron lo que es el amor incondicional que Tu tienes por nosotros y nosotras. Te rogamos, por intercesión de Tu Santísima Madre de San Juan del Valle, que llenes de Tu gracia a nuestras abuelitas y mamacitas aquí en la tierra. Y a las que ya fueron a Tu lado, confiamos nos las estás cuidando amorosamente. Amen.

Reflexiones del domingo
Apocalipsis 7: 9, 14b-17
VESTIDO PARA EL CIELO

No sabemos cómo nos veremos en el cielo. En la resurrección del cuerpo, ¿tendremos el cuerpo de nuestra juventud? ¿Nos veremos igual que cuando morimos? Estas son preguntas naturales, pero la vida eterna será mucho mayor de lo que podemos imaginar ahora. Cuando nos liberemos del tiempo y el lugar, entraremos en la presencia misteriosa de Dios de una manera más perfecta de lo que podemos saber.

Aun así, las personas usan metáforas para imaginar la vida eterna, y el Libro de la Revelación no es una excepción. John ve a una gran multitud de pie ante el trono y el Cordero, "vistiendo túnicas blancas y sosteniendo ramas de palmeras en sus manos". John vio el cielo en una visión de vestimenta y accesorios.

Las túnicas blancas visten a los seres celestiales en varios pasajes del Nuevo Testamento. La ropa de Jesús se vuelve blanca en la transfiguración. Los ángeles vestidos de blanco aparecen en la resurrección. Los seres celestiales en todo el Libro de la Revelación visten de blanco. Esta es una de las razones por las que nos vestimos de blanco el día de nuestro bautismo y porque cubrimos el ataúd de un cristiano con un paño blanco. Ya estamos vestidos con el uniforme del cielo.

La rama de la palma festiva es un signo de la victoria de la vida eterna. Artistas a lo largo de los siglos han representado a santos portando palmas.

No sabemos lo que usaremos o llevaremos, pero podemos esperar que el Cordero nos guíe a los manantiales de agua que da vida.

Sunday's Reflections
Revelation 7:9, 14b-17
DRESSED FOR HEAVEN

We do not know what we will look like in heaven. At the resurrection of the body, will we have the body of our youth? Will we look as we do when we die? These are natural questions, but eternal life will be far greater than what we can now imagine. When we are freed from time and place, we will enter the mysterious presence of God in ways more perfect than we can know.

Still, people use metaphors to envision eternal life, and the Book of Revelation is no exception. John sees a great multitude standing before the throne and the Lamb, "wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands." John saw heaven in a vision of vesture and accessories.

White robes clothe heavenly beings in several passages of the New Testament. Jesus' clothes turn white at the transfiguration. Angels clothed in white appear at the resurrection. Heavenly beings throughout the Book of Revelation wear white. This is one reason why we wear white on the day of our baptism, and why we cover a Christian's coffin with a white cloth. We are clothed already in the uniform of heaven.

The festive palm branch is a sign of the victory of eternal life. Artists throughout the ages have depicted saints carrying palms.

We do not know what we will wear or carry, but we can expect that the Lamb will shepherd us to springs of life-giving water.
