HAPPY EASTER

Easter is special at so many levels. It is the day to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The resurrection is one of the most important bedrocks of the faith. It is also the time to remember the sacrifice that Jesus made for everyone. It has become a day when family and friends come together, and the bonds grow stronger. Candy eggs and special treats are shared with each other, and you might spend the entire day in the company of people you love and care about.

FAMILY CONNECTION

As parents, we occasionally hear stories that can seem like nonsense from our children. When we take the time to listen more carefully, however, we can sometimes find the interpretive key that makes sense of the story. This is similar to the experience of the disciples after Jesus' Resurrection. The apostles did not understand the meaning of the women's report of Jesus' empty tomb until they discovered the interpretive key: Jesus' words to them. Jesus had told them that he would die and rise again on the third day. When the apostles remembered these words, they were able to believe the women's story and to proclaim the Good News of salvation to all.

Show a red plastic viewer and the card that it "interprets" (found in some board games). Discuss how the red plastic viewer allows one to read the writing that is on the card (It will reveal the words hidden behind the red screen of dots). Say: Without the red viewer, the printing on this card looks like nonsense. To make sense of the nonsense, we need this special lens. As followers of Jesus, we also have a special lens that helps us make sense of Jesus' Resurrection, which we celebrate on Easter. Let's listen carefully to today's Gospel to see what this is. Read aloud today's Gospel Luke 24:1-12. Ask: What did the men at the tomb remind the women about? (Jesus' words to them) These words of Jesus helped the women and the disciples believe that Jesus was truly raised from the dead. Where do we find Jesus' words? (in the Bible, in the Gospels) The words of Scripture help us believe that Jesus is truly risen. Conclude in prayer together, that our faith in Jesus' Resurrection will grow strong and that we will recognize the amazing things that God does for us in our world. Pray together the Act of Faith.
