MONEY MONEY MONEY

How many people in the world today sell their souls for the Almighty dollar, rather than giving their soul to the Almighty? Lots of people do this, to their ruin. Chasing money instead of trying to be more like Jesus Christ means that you may be blessed in this world with a big house, lots of vacations, and fancy cars, but you will probably not be blessed in the next life. The love of money can ruin a person faster than just about anything. Studies have shown that the more income a person has, the less percentage of money he gives to the poor. Why? Because of greed, and a real worry that someone is going to come along and take it all from you. Poorer people realize that they are more dependent on God for their next dollar and tend to give a higher percentage to the poor as a result (just like the widow in the Bible who gave all she had).

And why does anyone today listen to money "experts" trying to sell you their services? Watching these loud, dour people on TV talking about money is tantamount to pure torture. We saw in the 1980's how the people running the Savings and Loans in America went bankrupt. And today, we see how all of the so called "experts" running huge banks and investment firms are all begging for the government to bail them out. It would be better to do-it-yourself when investing your money than listening to these rich crooks who rip people off by taking their hard-earned money and then investing it in scam rip-offs.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Family life helps us learn about the values of solidarity and the common good. As a family, we strive to respect the rights of each family member and make decisions that promote the common good of the family. Talk about what it would be like if the family ordered a pizza and then divided it unevenly, with some members getting as many pieces as they wanted while others got only a half slice. Talk about how you work to make sure that everyone in the family has his or her fair share. Talk about how your family is also a member of the human family, called to share the goods of creation fairly and justly. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to remember that the goods of the world are intended to be shared by all. Read aloud Luke 12:13-21. Talk about the parable of the rich fool and ask family members to describe what they think he did wrong. Emphasize that although the man in the story doesn't seem bad, Jesus points out that this man's flaw was that he was thinking only about himself and his own comfort and security. Emphasize that when we fail to think about the needs of others, we call that a sin of omission. Remind your children that each time we go to Mass, we ask forgiveness for what we have done and for what we have failed to do. We call this prayer the Confiteor. End this time together by praying the Confiteor ("I confess to almighty God...").
