FROM THE PASTOR

Happy Feast Day to all of you!

Today is our day to celebrate our identity as the community of Sacred Heart. The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus started after the apparition of Jesus to St. Mary Alacoque in France on 1672. The message of Jesus to her was to spread the devotion to His Sacred Heart, frequent communion, reparation of sins, and First Friday Adoration. This message has been spread throughout the world and even today many people are still practicing these messages of Jesus to St. Mary.

As a parish community we have been journeying as one family of God in attaining His Kingdom. In the past years, we have had births and weddings; starting a new life and relationship. We have had tragedies, funerals, surgeries and challenges; reminding us of our total dependence on God. We have also had First Communion and Confirmation; passing on the faith to our children that was entrusted to us by our fore fathers. All these events and experiences give us consolation from God and hope for the future as we continue to build one family of faith centered on God.

As your shepherd I want to encourage all of you in your participation in our parish activities. There is nothing that you cannot offer to God and His Church. In the future, we will have more activities that will foster our spiritual growth as an individual and as a community. Let us walk forward with faith and trust to the Sacred Heart of Jesus! Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us!

—Fr. Eric Flores

MISSIONARY COOPERATIVE APPEAL

The Missionary Cooperative Appeal is an annual program in which missionaries from around the world speak at each parish. The goal of this appeal is to increase awareness of missionary work and to raise funds to help missionary organizations continue their evangelization efforts. In the Diocese of Sacramento, 50 different missions were selected this year to each speak at two parishes. Last year through generous denotations, we collected $392,880 for 51 missions.

On the weekend of June 23rd & 24th, our parish will be visited by Fr. Thomas King with Franciscan Friars. He will share with us their courageous evangelization efforts on behalf of the Catholic Church and give us an opportunity to support their work in the field.

A second collection will be taken up following his presentation. Donations made by check should be made payable to the parish. All funds collected throughout the Diocese will be equally divided among the 50 missionary organizations visiting the Diocese of Sacramento this year.

SACRED HEART MISSION OUTREACH

The monthly meeting of the Sacred Heart Mission Outreach group will be at Humble Joe's in Anderson at 9:00 a.m. this coming Thursday, June 14. The group finds and funds charitable projects throughout the world. Come enjoy a free breakfast and see what we're all about!

If attending meetings isn't possible, you can always share by placing your contribution in the Sunday collection and designating it for the Sacred Heart Mission Outreach.

SEVEN WAYS TO ENCOURGE YOUR PRIEST

#1: Cut the Criticism: Presbyterian minister Fred Rogers, creator and host of television's "Mr. Roger's Neighborhood" once gave an address describing the time he was a student at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and attended a different church each Sunday in order to hear a variety of preachers. One Sunday he was treated to "the most poorly crafted sermon he had ever heard." But when he turned to the friend who had accompanied him, he found her in tears. "It was exactly what I needed to hear," she said. "That's when I realized," he told the audience, "that the space between someone doing the best he or she can and someone in need is holy ground. The Holy Spirit had transformed that feeble sermon for her – and as it turned out, for me too."

Unlike most workers who are evaluated once or twice a year, clergy are often critiqued weekly, if not daily. It's not unusual to hear people say: "the music was poor, the hymn selection was awful," or the sermon was boring, they only talk about money." We would do well to remember that most priests work hard to make the Mass a blessed celebration each week. Remember to show your appreciation!

#2: Pray Regularly: Ask God to shower your priests with an abundance of love, hope, joy, faith, peace, power, wisdom, and courage. Pray for your priest's maturity and growth in the faith. As you pray keep in mind this wisdom from German writer Johann Wolfgang von Goethe: "If you treat a person as he is, he will stay as he is; but if you treat him as if he were what he ought to be, he will become what he ought to be and could be."

#3: Avoid Gossip: If you hear a negative comment, respond with a positive one. If misinformation is being spread, correct it with the accurate information. Or, if people are gossiping, just walk away. Remember the Bible soundly condemns gossip and careless speech. James 1:26 says, "If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue, he deceives himself and his religion is worthless." And Psalm 34:13 reads, "Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking lies." There is a place for honest discussion in the pastoral council, finance council, school council, liturgy council, and other parish committees. It is also important to be upfront and to share concern directly with your priest.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

I have coached all three of my children in soccer at some time in their lives. I loved teaching them and their teammates the importance of functioning as one unit. If we were not all moving together toward victory, we would all find ourselves together in defeat. We used to go through one drill I called the "human foosball." We would scrimmage with players in lines like on a foosball table. If you ever got too far behind or too far ahead of those in your line, play would stop and the ball would go to the other team. The goal was to help build an awareness of where your teammates were on the pitch and to teach the lesson that no one player is a team onto themselves.

As disciples and stewards, we sometimes find ourselves far behind or maybe even too far ahead. As a consequence, our actions either hinder the ability of the Body of Christ to evangelize and pass on the faith to a new generation or present the Church as an entity that sees itself as judgmental or too holy to be in the world. We are called to community, and in that community, we must be aware of our brothers and sisters in the faith. At times, we need to help them grow in their faith. Other times, we need to slow down and realize that we cannot change the world on our own. We all have unique gifts we are called to share, and we can only bear true witness to the power of the Body of Christ when we are all moving together and making each other strong. —Tracy Welliver, MTS

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOR JUNE 10TH

Have you ever felt judged by your family? St. John Paul II noted that the family "is the cradle of life and love" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 40). Yet unmet expectations and divergent priorities can cause tension in even the most loving family situations. This is true for us, and it was true for Jesus!

In today's Gospel, Jesus has returned home to Nazareth. A large crowd gathered, and Jesus finds himself facing stiff opposition from his family. This was likely Jesus' large, extended family. The Semitic language has no specific words for extended relatives, so everyone is "brother" or "sister." The entire clan has gotten wind of Jesus' preaching, and they are not amused. "They set out to seize him, for they said, 'He is out of his mind.'" To make matters worse, the religious authorities even accuse Jesus of being possessed by a demon. It's a mess by any standards.

The family's perspective is perhaps understandable. In Jewish culture, teachers and scribes underwent intensive schooling and apprenticeships, none of which Jesus had done. The family knew Jesus the carpenter, not Jesus the rabbi. For them, Jesus' bold preaching threatened the reputation of their family!

Jesus' words to his family can seem controversial. "Who are my mother and my brothers?" Yet Jesus knows what he is about. He has always known he would be about the business of his Heavenly Father. And what is that business? It is the business of the new covenant and the Kingdom of God. In this Kingdom, we are all adopted sons and daughters of the King. Jesus begins, even now, to expand the perspective of his listeners. Being welcomed into this family does not depend on our families of birth or ethnic origin, but a wholehearted commitment to "do the will of God."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

For Youth: God has created us with free will, the freedom to follow or ignore God's will for us. How can you discover God's will for you?

For Adults: We humans are vulnerable to sin. Our sins most often lead to shame, mistrust, and blaming. How can following God's will free you from these destructive actions?
