Here is a verse from the Bible that speaks of our Christian duty: Micah 6:8

*You have been told, O man, what is good,
and what the LORD requires of you:
Only to do right and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God.*

Holy Week is a wonderful time to walk humbly with God. See you at the celebrations!

Palm Sunday Greetings,

March 25, 2018

Holy Week begins. We declare Jesus is the King and use palms to express our joy at His arrival in the city. We process waving Palms high, singing Hosanna! We take the palms home as a sign of our relationship with the King! The palms are returned after the Christmas celebrations so they can become the ashes we use for the next year's Lenten season.

Monday of Holy Week offers the opportunity to attend the Chrism Mass at 6:30 PM at the Cathedral. The church is filled with people from every parish in the Diocese. Oils are blessed and received by parish representatives. Priests renew their vows of commitment; a plenary indulgence is offered to those in attendance.

Do you know when Lent officially ends? Our Lenten journey ends when Holy Thursday Mass begins. This celebration of the events in the upper room in Jerusalem are the start of the Triduum. Jesus used signs to teach about true servanthood. He washed feet: on this evening we invite everyone to come forward and have their feet washed. Jesus used ordinary bread and wine changing them into His Body and Blood. We participate in that night's celebration every time we attend mass. Before Mass begins if you look in the chapel you will notice the tabernacle is empty since we start the Triduum with the institution of the Eucharist, Adoration will follow the Mass until Midnight. Consider stopping in for a few moments or an hour, visit Jesus.

Good Friday services are held so we can venerate the wood of the cross, upon which hung the Savior of the world. This is a day of fast and abstinence.

Holy Saturday we celebrate the Easter Vigil. This is a Mass of great celebration, if you have not ever attended one; this is the year. There is immense joy in acknowledging the Risen Lord with fire, candles, water, baptismal renewal, confirmation, and the Eucharist. Please bring your friends and family to participate in the joy of JESUS RISEN FROM THE DEAD. Alleluia! We can say again during and after the celebration... Alleluia.

Have you ever thought about inviting a friend, Catholic or not, to come with you to Mass. When you invite another to experience Jesus with you it is known as intentional discipleship. There is a saying: Make a friend, be a friend, and bring a friend to Christ...

When we have visitors from out of town they may ask you why we do not kneel after communion like they do in their home parish. You can share with them we do kneel for a time of private meditation and prayer, just not immediately, after returning from receiving Holy Communion. We stand as a community in prayer together until everyone has received before we go into personal prayer and thankfulness for the blessing of having Jesus within us. You may also notice that Father or the Deacon move to the credence table where he cleanses the vessels used during Mass to make sure that there are no fragments of Jesus left on the patens or in the chalices.

May you have a blessed Holy Week; it is a wonderful time to walk humbly with God. See you at the celebrations!

Blessings on your day! Fr. Chuck

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'" — Mark 15:12-13

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the strength and courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

Your Help is Needed

Do you know of someone who is ill or homebound that may like a visit from us? We would love to call on them, so please be our eyes and ears so that these folks don't fall through the cracks! Often times, the only way we are notified of a need is through friends and neighbors of the person who is reluctant to notify us themselves. If you know of someone, call the Parish Office, 444-4262 and we will arrange for a visit. Thanks to you for caring about your parish family!

Grieving Resource Library

If you have lost a loved one, maybe you have felt one of the following during your grief: "It can't be, it just can't be; I never knew that it would hurt so much; part of my heart has been ripped away; no one ever told me that grief felt so much like fear; no one knows the tears still inside me; and finally, death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal."

Where do I find help? At St. Philip's. We have started to develop a Grieving Resource Library. We currently have 30-some books and pamphlets that could help you through your grief of the loss of a loved one.

Some of the books we carry are: Getting Past Christmas, tips for surviving December after the death of a loved one; When Bad Things Happen to Good People, how to cope with hard times and personal pain after the loss of a loved one. The Gift of a Memory, a warm and gentle gift of love that commemorates the loss of a special life and celebrates our most cherished memories; Too Soon A Memory, a guide for parents suffering a miscarriage. This booklet focuses on the needs of parents who have to deal with a loss that involved tangible memories. Journey Through Grief, a series of four books: Book one, A Time to Grieve, the three N's, normal, natural, necessary. Book two, Experiencing Grief, when your loss sinks in, accepting your grief, secondary losses. Book three, Finding Hope and Healing, how much longer God? How long does this last? Book Four, Rebuilding and Remembering, permission to grieve – again, the first anniversary, rebuilding your life, continuing bonds.

The books/pamphlets are located in the St. Kateri room and can be checked out for 2 weeks or more if you need to. If you are not sure which book could assist you, contact either Fr. Chuck, Fr. Don, Deacon Kermit or Deacon Robb. "The journey of grieving takes you from loving in the presence to loving in the absence."
