Happy 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time,

November 11, 2018

Attention: I want to make sure that everyone is aware of three very important meetings that are coming up this week. All parish members are encouraged to attend one of three All-Parish meetings scheduled for this coming Thursday, Nov. 15th at 6:30 PM, and Sunday, Nov 18th at 10:00 AM and at Noon. These will be three different opportunities to hear the same message. The main topic of the meeting will be an update from our Building Committee. They have been working very hard and have made some very good progress. Please attend one of the meetings to be able to hear directly from the building committee what they are proposing to meet the needs of our parish and school.

Our RCIA and Beyond sessions are continuing. Today, Nov. 11th, at 10:15 AM, is a session on Sin & Grace. If you are interested in learning more about what the Catholic Church teaches on Sin & Grace, stop in the St. Kateri Room and check it out. Fr. Chuck will be the presenter. If you are not Catholic and are interested in exploring the possibility of becoming Catholic or if you were baptized Catholic but have never been confirmed please consider joining the RCIA program. We would be very happy to have you join us. There will not be any pressure placed on you to join the church just because you joined us for a few sessions. The purpose of RCIA is to inform non-Catholics so that they may be able to make a decision as to whether or not the Catholic faith is for them. And then to help them understand the teachings of the church before they are baptized and or confirmed.

God is so very good, and it is appropriate that we give him thanks every day, but we have the special occasion of Thanksgiving Day coming up very soon. I pray that you and your family will have a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday weekend and remember to give God the praise that He is due while at the same time enjoying some wonderful food and some special time with those you love.

Our Gospel reading this week has a lesson for us about how we, as true disciples, are to respond to God's goodness. I would like to thank our parish family, as a whole, for your response to the gifts you have received from God.

May God continue to bless every one of you.

Deacon Kermit
