Liturgical Bits & Bytes - Saints

Saints - Beatification & Canonization (Part 1)

The process of declaring one a saint in the Catholic Church is called canonization. The canonization process is a canonical (Church law) procedure by which the Church through the Pope solemnly declares a Catholic to be united with God in heaven, an intercessory to God on behalf of the living, and worthy of public and universal veneration.

A cause of canonization examines a person's life and death to determine if they were either martyred or lived a virtuous life. Every cause of canonization has two phases: the diocesan and Roman phase. The diocese responsible for opening a cause is the diocese in which the person died/was martyred. The diocese, religious order, association or lay person(s) requesting (petitioning) for the cause asks the diocesan bishop, through a person known as the postulator to open an investigation into the martyrdom or life of the person.

The diocesan bishop investigates how the person lived a heroic virtuous life, exemplifying the virtues of faith, hope and love through the calling of witnesses and the theological examination of the candidates' writings. If the cause is based on martyrdom, the diocesan bishop investigates the circumstances surrounding the alleged martyrdom, which is also done through the calling of witnesses to the martyrdom and the examination of the candidates' life.

Excerpt: Popular Devotional Practices

Saint of the Week

Saint Vitus

On June 15th the Church celebrates the Memorial of Saint Vitus. This young Christian of the 4th century, perhaps originally from Sicily, worked miracles even in his youth. According to legend, he was assisted by two angels, his tutor Modestus and his nurse Crescentia. He healed the son of Diocletian from epilepsy but was tortured all the same and killed for his refusal to sacrifice to the gods. He is depicted as a youth or child with a white rooster or palm branch, sometimes dressed as a soldier. Vitus is the protector of actors, dancers, epileptics and tinsmiths.

Prayer of the Week

A Summer Blessing

May you walk with God this summer in whatever you do wherever you go.

Walking with God means . . .

Walking with honesty and courage.

Walking with love and respect and concern for the feelings of others.

May you talk to God this summer
on every day and in every situation.

Talking with God means . . .

Praying words of praise for the beauty of creation.

Saying prayers of thanks for friends and good times.

Asking God's help in all your decisions.

Expressing sorrow when you have failed.

May you walk and talk with God every day.

Amen.

MISSION - The mission of Totus Tuus is to inspire in young people a true longing for holiness, a deep desire for daily conversion, and an openness to their vocation by challenging them to give themselves entirely to Christ through Mary and by strengthening their prayer lives in imitation of her.

FAITH FILLED LEADERS - Totus Tuus draws upon the energy and dedication of Catholic college students and seminarians from Maine to witness to our faith. Resisting Happiness by Matthew Kelly

How is your spiritual health? It is interesting we seldom speak about this. If we want to be happy, we must seek to strengthen our relationship with God. Pray, everyday. Develop a habit whether first thing in the morning, last at night or on your lunch break...find a few moments to talk with God. You will be surprised at the results.

Precious Innocents, Inc.

My name is Aline Poulin. I am a native of Waterville and was a member of Notre Dame Church prior to it becoming part of Corpus Christi Parish and continue as a member to this day. I see many of your faces at daily Mass.

Approximately 3 years ago I founded an organization called Precious Innocents, Inc., recognizing a need to help families that experience the loss of a child through a miscarriage by protecting the precious infants up to 19 weeks of the gestational period from being disposed of along with medical waste into a landfill. This has become my passion and I hope it will become yours.

There will be a brief presentation after the following weekday Masses explaining our mission and how to help:

June 20 after the 8AM Mass at Notre Dame
June 21 after the 12:15PM Mass at Notre Dame

Please join us!

Attention New Parishioners

Welcome packets are available in the back of both of our churches. Please pick one up or stop by the office to introduce yourself and get one.
