

Father's Day Blessing

Blessed is the Father, who lets the Lord
be his guiding hand, whose faith brings
his family courage.
Whose wisdom comes from God,
And whose children still stand and honor him.

St. John's Senior Citizens Meeting

The Senior Citizens will meet Tuesday, June 19th at 10:30 am at the parish hall. Our program begins at 11:00 a.m. This month's guest speaker is Betty Glaeser from the Terrell Share Center. She will tell us all about how the Share Center got started and how it has had explosive growth over the years. This is a wonderful organization that helps the needy of our community in so many ways. Please tell a friend or a neighbor and invite them to come. Lunch will be covered dish. Hope to see you there!

Mass Intentions

Sound Catholic practice encourages us to offer the Mass for the departed and for those in any need. To request a Mass to be offered, please visit the parish office or return to the office a completed Mass intention card. Available cards are located in the foyer of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Sacrament of Anointing

Because of the Privacy Act, hospitals and nursing homes are no longer able to provide a list of the Catholic patients/residents for the Churches use in order to visit and administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Anointing of the Sick. Therefore, I need your assistance when you have a family member who is hospitalized or in a nursing home. Please call Fr. Orosco at the Church Office at (972) 563-3643 so that I may be of assistance.

Daily Prayer This Week

There is nothing like the Sermon on the Mount to help us hear the message of Jesus, and to let ourselves be addressed by those words. All of us can ask for these graces with real specificity, that is, with real people and real daily circumstances in mind. We know with whom we need to “turn the other cheek” and to love more. We know the circumstances in which we are tempted to “be religious” in the right circumstances only. Upon reflection, each of us can take the time to “locate” our hearts, by discovering what we tend to “treasure.” We can do a simple check on ourselves: we make a list of the five most important things in my life. Then we can make a list of the five things I spend most of my time on. Comparing the lists will help us get concrete about asking the Lord for the grace we need to put our lives back in balance. All of us can name what we worry about. And so we can all ask for the graces to “seek first” the Kingdom of God

All of this reflection can happen throughout the week in the background of our daily life, if we get into the habit of focusing for a few moments each morning. If we take just 30 seconds, at the edge of our bed each morning, it will begin to establish a habit of living more reflectively.

Thank you for this day, Lord. Help me to be focused today on not getting so hooked by Ann's ways or Bob's harsh words. I need your grace to place my trust in you. Help me especially before I have to talk with Ann on the phone and let me stay focused before Bill comes home from work.

Our version of a brief moment with the Lord - friend to friend - can be repeated and made more specific, while we are going about our day. Some days, we might have 20 such moments of prayerful conversation with our Lord - guided by the Word, the desires that are surfacing, and the events of our daily lives. And, each night, we can give thanks for this deeper relationship with the Lord that is developing in my heart.

This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow. (Gospel)

Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time, when Jesus compares our faith to the mustard seed. Our faith, like that tiny seed, can grow large and put forth large branches, having an effect on those who we may not even know we have touched.

Thursday is the Memorial of St. Aloysius Gonzaga, of the Society of Jesus.

The first readings this week continue our readings from 1 & 2 Kings and other Old Testament books. It follows Elijah and Elisha - powerful prophet and agents of God's word for the people.

The gospels this week continue the Sermon on the Mount, from Matthew's Gospel. In revealing his new and deeper way, Jesus shares a most counter-cultural law, “offer no resistance to one who is evil.” And, he tells us to “Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow.” He proclaims, “I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. ... For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have?” And, just when we think he is asking the impossible of us, he goes even further, “So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.” He warns his disciples against hypocrisy, “Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them.” Praying and fasting have their own reward from the Lord. Jesus tells us to keep our prayer simple, “Your Father knows what you need before you ask him,” and he teaches us the Our Father. Jesus tells us that “The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light.” The week ends with his invitation to us to trust in God. “Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span?”

Oración para el Padre

Señor Dios, Padre Bueno,
Creador del género humano,
Tú enviaste a tu Hijo Jesús,
para redimir y salvar a los hombres,
El quiso nacer en una familia como la nuestra, le diste a la Virgen María como madre
y a San José como padre; Te pedimos por estos padres para que, a ejemplo de San José,
amen a sus hijos, los cuiden y protejan,
y, sobre todo, les enseñes a amarte a Ti que eres nuestro Padre del Cielo,
te sirvan en todo,
y alcancen finalmente la vida eterna.
Te lo pedimos a Ti que vives y reinas por los siglos de los siglos.
Amen.

SEMBREMOS LA SEMILLA DE LA PALABRA, Y EL SEÑOR HARÁ SU PARTE

Jesús enseñaba con sabiduría a la gente, “de acuerdo con lo que ellos podían entender” y, si nosotros somos dóciles, podremos comprender que los tiempos de Dios no son nuestros tiempos, que cuando sembramos la semilla de su Palabra, ésta dará fruto cuando lo tenga que dar.

Quienes quieren servir a Dios han de hacerse pequeños, como la semilla de mostaza, para que él actúe con plena libertad y vaya transformando lo que sea necesario para que crezcan de acuerdo con nuestro único modelo, Cristo.

Caminemos guiados por la fe;
Dios hace cosas admirables.

Feliz Día de los Padres!
